

Winter Break Contract Addendum

Housing & Dining

December 13, 2009 - January 7, 2010

The following provisions pertain to students living in all University residence halls and are amendments to the Addendum for the Northern Illinois University Residence Hall Contract, 2009-2010 Edition.

I. Eligibility

To be eligible for residence during this period, students must have been enrolled at Northern Illinois University and lived in a University residence hall for the 2009 Fall Semester. They must also be enrolled at Northern Illinois University and planning to live in a University residence hall for the 2009 Spring Semester.

II. Food Service

December 12, 2009 is the last day of Fall Semester dining service (11 a.m. – 2 p.m. Neptune only). No structured Housing & Dining meal plan is offered during the break. The Douglas Dog Pound Deli is open January 6, 2010 4-6 p.m. and January 7 through January 10 it is open 11 a.m. - 1 p.m. & 4 p.m. - 6 p.m. and only Huskie Bucks will be accepted. Standard meal hours begin in all Dining units when classes resume on Monday, January 11.

III. Building Entry and Exit

All halls will be locked 24 hours per day and main desks will not be in operation. Card access privileges will be issued to all approved residents for the contract period during the break. Residents with contracts are responsible for escorting personal guests at all times in all parts of the building.

IV. Mail Delivery

U.S. mail will be distributed daily, except on Sundays and official holidays. Private delivery services (UPS, FedEx, etc.) will not typically make deliveries during the break period when the main desks are closed.

Indicate the desired Contract period below

Entire Break: Sunday December 13, 2009 to Thursday January 7, 2010 $214.28

Or by individual weeks:

Sunday December 13, 2009 to Sunday December 20, 2009 $60.00
