Major: Community Leadership and Civic Engagement

Degree: B.A., B.S.

Date Revised: November 14, 2010

Student Learning Outcomes and proposed Methods for collecting data (from assessment plan/status report)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Student Learning Outcomes</th>
<th>Methods of Assessment</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Demonstrating their working knowledge of public service and modes of civic engagement, their theoretical and practical knowledge of the role and functioning of civil society in the US and globally, and their deepened appreciation of institutions engaged in positive societal change | - Service learning/Civic Engagement (1,2)
- Capstone (3) |
| 2. Analyzing needs and applying skills required to be an effective volunteer and contributor within the nonprofit sector through engaged volunteer activity and the associated leadership skills within those organizations and equally within the classroom and other course related activities | - Survey (1,2,4)
- Focus Groups (1) |
| 3. Integrating and creating new knowledge and insight into civil society through a Capstone Project | - Alumni survey (1,4)
- Advisory board (1,4) |
| 4. Assimilating civic engagement and leadership skills, knowledge and values through classroom lectures and activities, interactions with practitioners, and successful application of their CLCE interdisciplinary preparation in “real world” settings | - Employer feedback (1,4) |