Data from rubrics and exit interview spurred changes in course offerings, skills assessed, and development of remediation plans.

Program-based learning outcomes emphasize integration of academic training in clinical practice.

Rubrics ensure consistent feedback provided to students from clinical supervisors.

Exit surveys identify programmatic strengths and areas of needed improvement.

NIU Outstanding Assessment Practice 2010-2011