

ALL-CAMPUS INTRAMURAL SPORTS CHAMPION AWARDS SYSTEM “THE DIRECTOR’S CUP”

The Director’s Cup is designed to increase participation, reward sportsmanship and recognize a campus intramural champion. Each team will be awarded points based on the system described below. At the end of the year, each team's points are added up. The team with the most points is crowned "NIU Intramural Champion." Intramural Sports are separated into 2 categories

Spring Sports

- League Sports: 5 on 5 Basketball, Volleyball, Floor Hockey, Wiffleball
- Tournaments: Basketball Pentathlon, BASEketball, 4 on 4 Flag Football, Racquetball Doubles

Participation Points:

- Teams must use the same name (or designate an affiliation) for each sport to accumulate points.
- Regardless of the number of teams entered by a particular organization, only TWO teams will be eligible to accumulate POSITIVE points for “League sports and 1 day tournaments.”
- Participation points will be awarded in all major sports, minor sports and special events.
 - 100% of the members participating for a Greek organization must be new or initiated member.
 - i. If a participant is a “pledge” they must have signed their bid to join the fraternity and have 1 semester to become an active member.

*If a team cannot show up please contact the Intramural Grad Assistant. If he knows in advance and can resolve the issue... the loss of participation points may be avoided.

- Any team receiving a sportsmanship rating of "1" will be suspended from play until the team captain meets with the Assistant Director for Recreational Programs.
- Any team receiving 2 sportsmanship ratings of "1" within the same sport will be removed from league/tournament.
- 5 points will be deducted for each team member ejected from a game.
- Sportsmanship points will be awarded in all major and minor sports
