

CHEM 498/499 Syllabus
Seminar, Lecture and Assignment Schedule
(Does not include research activities assigned by faculty research supervisor)
These meetings will be in FW 300
Spring 2008

Date	Topic	Who must attend/participate
Noon, Monday, January 14 3 PM, Friday, January 18	Organizational meeting (Friday meeting for students with Monday scheduling overlap)	All CHEM 498 and 499 students must attend either the Monday or Friday organizational meeting
Noon, Monday, January 28 3 PM, Friday, February 1	Seminar date selection and presentation discussion	All students giving research seminars during this semester
Mid semester - Dates to be announced	Electronic library materials	All students who have not previously gone to these presentations
Mid - Late semester - Due two weeks following electronic library materials presentations	Library assignment submission	All students who have not previously submitted these assignments
Mid - Late semester - Dates to be announced - due one week before presentation of research seminar	Research reports	All students giving research reports during this semester
Late semester seminars - Dates to be announced	Student research seminars	All 498/498 students must give one seminar before graduation - all 498/499 students should attend talks
Within one week of seminar presentation	Seminar review - Meeting to discuss student/faculty feedback on seminar	All students giving seminar this semester

Each semester, all CHEM 498/499 enrolled students must attend Organizational Meeting and Student Seminars.

Before graduation, all CHEM 498/499 students must once: attend the seminar presentation discussion, complete the library assignment, submit a 2-3 page research report, and present a seminar.

Grading - Providing satisfactory completion of the above assignments, grades will be assigned by faculty research supervisor.