Conference panels, September 14 -15
Papers welcome in the Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences

The conference honors renowned Cambodian-American composer Dr. Chinary Ung with an evening program of his music for soloists and small chamber groups, Saturday, Sept. 15.

We invite submissions for conference papers or a panel (four presenters and a discussant, fifteen minutes per paper). We also invite special topics panels for which papers will be circulated in advance to all registered participants to allow for in-depth discussions (see the call for papers).

Conference concludes with a visit to the Cambodian American Heritage Museum and Killing Fields Memorial in Chicago, Sunday September 16th.

Conference registration ($175) includes all meals, performances and transportation to the museum on Sunday. Funds are being sought to subsidize transportation and registration costs for students and for Cambodian scholars and artists.
