Northern Illinois University’s Center for Southeast Asian Studies & Center for Non-governmental Organization Leadership and Development are seeking friendly local families to host

Southeast Asian fellows from

Leading and Organizing for Change in Southeast Asia

October 18, 2015

Northern Illinois University is looking for families to host Southeast Asian research fellows on October 18, 2015.

Your family will:

- Meet young leaders from Brunei, Burma/Myanmar, Cambodia, Indonesia, Laos, Malaysia, the Philippines, Thailand, and Vietnam
- Learn about interesting cultures, places, and people
- Be ambassadors and present a positive image of the United States

All you need to do:

- Share your life for just one day
- Provide an opportunity to have lunch
- Transport Participants to and from NIU
- Enjoy the day with your guests, whether it is a special event or just enjoy a regular Sunday around town.
- Submit Host Family Application by September 18.
  - You can find an application at:
