1. This week’s lecture: Risa Toha on violent conflict in transitioning Indonesia

Risa J. Toha, Indonesia Research Fellow at the Ash Center for Democratic Governance and Innovation in Harvard University’s John F. Kennedy School of Government, will present “Explaining Violent Conflicts in Transitioning Indonesia” at noon Friday, Nov. 2, in Room 110 (Honors office), Campus Life Building. To order an Indonesian lunch, submit an online request by 6 p.m. Thursday at CSEAS Brown Bag Lunch Order. Orders must be cancelled online by 10 a.m. Friday. Lunches that are not picked up and have not been cancelled must still be paid for. Cost is $5 for students and $6 for faculty, staff and others. Payments may be made in cash or by check. For details, e-mail seabrownbag@gmail.com. CSEAS is not responsible for taking or cancelling lunch orders.

2. 50th Anniversary Event: Film series features classic Thai horror movie this week

The 50th Anniversary Film Series, hosted by the Southeast Asia Club, continues this week with Shutter, a 2004 Thai horror film, which will be shown the day after Halloween at 7 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 1, in Room 100, Campus Life Building. Co-sponsored by NIU Horror Club. This is the last film in the series this semester; the series will resume in spring with four new films, including The Lady, a newly released biopic about Burma leader Aung San Suu Kyi.

3. Coming up on the CSEAS 50th Anniversary Event Calendar

- Nov. 16: CSEAS 50th Anniversary Fall Lecture by David Steinberg, Georgetown University professor of Asian Studies, noon, Sky Room, Holmes Student Center. An International Education Week event. Co-sponsored by the Division of International Programs.
- Through May 15: “Rarely Seen Southeast Asia: Art, Artifact, Ephemera,” curated by professor emeritus and retired CSEAS associate Richard Cooler, is on display at The Anthropology Museum at Fay-Cooper Cole Hall. For museum hours and other information, call 815-753-2520.
- See the CSEAS website for a calendar of 2012–13 anniversary events and click through 50 years of CSEAS history on our new interactive timeline on the home page.

4. Center associates update: On the hustings in Michigan, Arkansas

- Susan Russell (anthropology) is headed for East Lansing, Mich., to the 9th International Conference on the Philippines Oct. 28–30 at Michigan State University, where she will present “Peacebuilding: The Role Of NGOs in the Philippines.” Also at the conference are NIU students Lily Ann Villaraza (PhD candidate, history), who will present “The Caricature of Condition: George Aide’s The Sultan of Sula” and Laurence Tumpag (MA candidate, anthropology), who is presenting “A Comparative Analysis of Gender Performance in Pre-Colonial Philippines, Indonesia, and Various Western Cultures: A Literature Review.”

- Patricia Henry (foreign languages and literatures) was recently at the University of Central Arkansas Oct. 18-20 where she participated in “Colonial Legacies in Asia: Perspectives from History, Literature, Philosophy, Religion and Politics,” a Freeman Foundation-funded workshop sponsored by the East-West Center’s Asian Studies Development Program. The program addressed the legacies of European and Asia colonialism, with an emphasis on China, Korea, Vietnam and Indonesia, Henry’s area of specialty.

5. Summer FLAS information and applications posted; deadline to apply Jan. 1

It’s not too early to start thinking about summer. And that means thinking of applying for a summer Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) fellowship. Information and forms to apply are posted on the CSEAS website; deadline to apply is Jan. 1. FLAS fellowships are funded by the U.S. Department of Education’s Title VI Program of Foreign Language and Area Studies Fellowships. Each year the center selects a number of qualified undergraduate and graduate students to study Southeast Asian languages as summer FLAS fellows. These fellowships provide for the study of Southeast Asian languages at any U.S. Department of Education-approved educational institution, especially those in Southeast Asia, during the summer semester. A list is available on the CSEAS website. Top priority will be given to students planning to study a language in a Southeast Asian country. Summer FLAS awards are expected to provide a stipend of $2,500. In addition, a FLAS fellow’s tuition at a Southeast Asia language program will be paid (up to $4,000). Any qualified undergraduate or graduate student from any accredited U.S. higher education institution is welcome to apply for this Summer FLAS award, but must apply as a visiting student (undergraduate) or as a student-at-large (graduate) at NIU.

6. Thai Studies: Awards for original paper, language study and student/faculty research

- Original paper: The Thai Studies Committee at NIU is announcing a $300 prize for an original research paper of outstanding merit dealing with any aspect of Thai Studies and written by an NIU student. The prize will be awarded at the Southeast Asia Club’s annual spring student conference, which is set for April 13, at which the winning paper must be presented. Deadline for consideration: Feb. 28. Submissions should be sent as a PDF or Word document to CSEAS associate Grant Olson (foreign languages and literatures) at golson@niu.edu. The winner will be announced at the student conference.

- Advanced Thai language study: Through the Royal Thai government’s Thai Teaching and Research Endowment Fund at NIU, the Thai Studies Committee will award two undergraduate academic-year scholarships. Each recipient is eligible to receive $500 per semester ($1,000 for the full year). Eligible undergraduates must be pursuing studies in Thai language, culture, history or politics. The study of advanced Thai language is a requirement, regardless of discipline. Applicants should have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher and sufficient language standing to take advanced Thai. Applicants should submit a one-page statement of interest, letters of recommendation from the Thai language instructor and another faculty member addressing the applicant’s academic skill, and a transcript. Award recipients are expected to attend and participate in Thai Studies-focused events at NIU. Deadline for consideration: April 5, 2013. Send applications to Chalermsee Olson at eteolson@niu.edu.

- Faculty and student research travel: Faculty and students are both invited to apply for grants supporting projects and initiatives involving research and training in Thai Studies. For example, students planning to present work at conferences related to Thai Studies may apply for funding to cover a portion of their costs (which could include travel, accommodations or conference registration fees). Applications should include a clear, concise description of the project’s purpose, a budget, and the ways in which the funds would be used to advance Thai Studies. Applications will be accepted and reviewed Feb. 28 and Sept. 30, 2013. Send applications to Chalermsee Olson at eteolson@niu.edu.

7. Center for Burma Studies taking van to UI-UC for Nov. 8 forum on Rohingya Muslims
The Center for Burma Studies is organizing a van to travel to Urbana-Champaign for a University of Illinois forum on human rights and the Rohingya Muslims in Burma/Myanmar on Thursday, Nov. 8. The forum is being hosted by the UI Center for South Asian and Middle Eastern Studies from 1 to 6 p.m. at the Information and Alumni Center, 1101 S. Goodwin Ave., Urbana. To sign up for the trip, contact the Center for Burma Studies at 753-0512. For details on the forum, see flyer on CSAMES website.

8. Burnish your resumé: Sign up for a SEA Studies minor or graduate concentration
Adding a minor to an undergraduate degree or a graduate concentration to an advanced degree is one way to pull a resumé up to the top of the pile. In a global marketplace, an internationally focused area of study can open even more doors. To learn about NIU’s Southeast Asian Studies programs, stop by the Center located in Pottenger House, 520 College View Court. Undergraduates may make an appointment with Outreach Coordinator Julie Lamb by emailing her at jlamb@niu.edu. Graduate students may contact Assistant Director Trude Jacobsen at tjacobsen1@niu.edu.

9. Overseas language, exchange, and area studies programs
   - Khmer Summer Abroad Programs, June 24–Aug. 2
The Khmer Language Program at the University of Hawaii-Manoa administers two summer abroad programs for Khmer language study in Phnom Penh. The Advanced Study of Khmer (ASK) program offers six weeks of intensive language training designed for third-year Khmer students; applications due Feb. 1. The Khmer Language and Culture Summer Abroad Program offers six weeks of intensive training for beginning and intermediate students; applications due April 6. Both programs are run by UH in collaboration with the Royal University of Phnom-Pen, Center for Khmer Studies. Both programs include one-week home stays in rural Cambodia. For details, see individual program websites or email Chhany Sak-humphry at sak@hawaii.edu.

NOTE: Students interested in taking language or area studies abroad through non-NIU programs are advised to work through NIU’s Study Abroad Office, 417 Williston Hall. By doing so, students can receive NIU credit and possibly have NIU financial aid apply, in addition to receiving liability and insurance protections.

10. Money for study
Blakemore Foundation
- Blakemore fellowships: Applications now being accepted for 2013 Blakemore-Freeman fellowships and Blakemore refresher grants for advanced study of various languages including Indonesian, Thai, and Vietnamese.
