Brooklyn College political scientist Kosal Path will present “The Khmer Rouge Practice of Thought Reform in Cambodia 1975–78” at this week’s Friday lecture. Details below. (Photo / Documentation Center of Cambodia)

Thought reform in Khmer-Rouge Cambodia

1. This week’s lecture: Political scientist Kosal Path, Brooklyn College
2. Connect the career dots: Alumni Connect Wednesday NEW
3. Center stage: CSEAS at College of DuPage symposium NEW
4. Help wanted: Seeking graduate assistant for SEAS 225
5. Center associates update: Hamayotsu, Ehrenkönig NEW
6. Notes from all over: On point in Thailand, paint on with SEA Club NEW
7. Summer study abroad in Bali, Thailand and beyond
8. Berkeley historian to keynote Spring Student Conference
9. Vietnamese to be offered again in fall 2015
10. Save the dates: Alumni Connects, world music, student conference
11. World Music Symposium includes SEA forum, music concert
12. SEA Research Group to hold April meeting in Chicago
13. Overseas language, exchange, and area studies programs NEW
14. Money for study
15. Job/internship opportunities
16. Conferences, calls for papers, workshops NEW
17. SEA cultural opportunities

Burnish your resumé
Add a Southeast Asian Studies minor to an undergraduate degree or a graduate certificate to an advanced degree and pull your resumé to the top of the pile. To learn more, visit the CSEAS website or stop by CSEAS at 520 College View Court. Undergraduates may make an appointment with Outreach Coordinator Julien Ehrenkönig at ehrenkonig@niu.edu; graduate students should contact Assistant Director Eric Jones at iloveroti@gmail.com.
1. This week’s lecture: Political scientist Kosal Path

Brooklyn College political scientist Kosal Path will present “The Khmer Rouge Practice of Thought Reform in Cambodia 1975–78” at noon Friday, March 20, in Room 110 (Honors), Campus Life Building. Path, a survivor of the Cambodian Genocide, served as a researcher for the Cambodian Genocide Program at Yale University and the Documentation Center of Cambodia from 1995 to 2000. Prior to coming to Brooklyn College he taught international relations at the University of Southern California from 2009 to 2011. His current research interests are transitional justice in post-genocide Cambodia and the Chinese-Vietnam split during the Cold War. There will be no Indonesian lunches March 20 or April 3. Lunches resume April 10. To order an Indonesian lunch, submit an online request by 6 p.m. Thursday at CSEAS Brown Bag Lunch Order. Orders must be cancelled online by 10 a.m. Friday. Cost is $5 for students and $6 for faculty, staff and others. Payments may be made in cash or by check (cash preferred). For lunch details or questions, e-mail seabrownbag@gmail.com. For complete spring schedule, see Center website.

2. Connect the career dots: Alumni Connect Wednesday

Come visit via Skype with the Center’s next Alumni Connect speaker Lyndy Worsham (MA political science, 2005) at noon March 18 in Room 337 Founders Library. Worsham, a Washington, DC-based USAID contractor for demographic and health surveys, is a cartographer certified in Geographic Information Systems. Before her recent return to the US, she coordinated information gathering on refugees and internally displaced persons in Thailand and Myanmar for more than a decade, teaching mapping and data management skills to community-based ethnic organizations in the region. (For more, see Worsham’s essay in the 2011 Mandala.)

Two more Alumni Connects are scheduled for spring:

- April 1: Via Skype with Colette Morgan (BA political science, 2011) of US-ASEAN Business Council, Washington, DC., noon, Room 337, Founders Library
- April 3: On-campus chat with Punchada “Art” Sirivunnabood (PhD political science, 2010) of Mahidol University and consultant for the Thai ministries of Defense and Foreign Affairs, 1 to 2 p.m., Pottenger House.

3. Center stage: CSEAS at College of DuPage symposium

CSEAS Director Judy Ledgerwood (Anthropology) and associates Tharaphi Than (Foreign Languages & Literatures) and Jui-Ching Wang (School of Music) will be among the featured presenters March 25 at Emerging Southeast Asia: Culture, History, and the Arts, the College of DuPage’s 23rd annual Asia Symposium in Glen Ellyn. The symposium begins at 9 a.m. and will be held in Room 2000 in the Student Resource Center on COD’s main campus, 425 Falwell Blvd. Ledgerwood will lead off with a brief historical overview and discuss trade relations, religions and the flow of people and ideas in “Southeast Asia as Crossroads of the World: Historically and Today.” Than will present “Burmesse Women: Then and Now” at 10 a.m., a discussion of the change in the political and social landscapes of Burmesse women from colonial times to present. The NIU Gamelan Ensemble, under the direction of Wang and NIU gamelan instructor Ngurah Kertayuda, will perform several Balinese pieces at 11 a.m. and accompany two dances: Tari Pendet (Welcome Flower Dance) and Tari Baris (Warrior Dance). Wang will also teach participants a children’s singing game and Kertayuda will teach traditional dance styles of several ethnic groups if time. allows. At noon, NIU alum Chamni Sripraram, former president of the Thai Cultural and Fine Arts Institute of Chicago and founder of the Thai music school, Thai Music at Chicago, will direct a TCFAI ensemble that will perform three Thai pieces. There will also be a demonstration of Malay martial art and two screenings of the 2011 biopic film The Lady. Admission to the symposium is free and open to the public.

4. Help wanted: Seeking graduate assistant for SEAS 225

CSEAS is accepting graduate student applications for the SEAS 225 for the 2014–15 academic year. The assistantship is a full-time (20 hours per week) position coordinating the Center’s Southeast Asia survey course, which is taught 12:30 to 1:45 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays, Most lectures are given by Southeast Asia faculty in a variety of disciplines. Specific duties include: Develop course syllabus and assessment modules; grade all exams, papers and assignments; keep office hours for student tutoring and guidance on lecture materials; post course material on Blackboard; teach some classes, including overview lectures and presentations relevant to his/her discipline and research interests. Applicants should be advanced in their studies (minimum two years) in the College of Liberal Arts & Sciences and must have knowledge of or experience in Southeast Asia in addition to strong organizational, written and communication skills. Previous TA experience is preferable but not essential. Preference will be given to those completing the graduate certificate in Southeast Asian studies. Position pays $1,180 per month plus full tuition waiver. All materials, including a graduate assistantship application, cover letter, resume, and two reference contacts, must be received by Office Manager Rita Miller by 4:30 p.m. April 15. Send to CSEAS, Northern Illinois University, 520 College View Court, DeKalb, IL 60115, email to Miller at ram@niu.edu, or FAX to 815-753-1776.

5. Center associates update: Hamayotsu, Ehrenkönig

* Julien Ehrenkönig (CSEAS Outreach Coordinator) has a busy weekend at the podium March 27–28. He will present “Lat through the Years: From the Malay World to Malaysia, as Seen through Selected Works of Datuk Mohammad Nor Khalid (Lat)” on the panel “Social, Cultural, and Everyday Lives in 1950s-’60s Malaysia and Singapore,” 1 to 3 p.m., March 27 at the Association for Asian Studies meeting in Chicago. The next day he will be back on campus presenting at the English Department’s 23rd annual Midwestern Conference on Literature, Language & Media.

6. Notes from all over: On point in Thailand, paint on with SEA Club

Thai language professor emeritus John Hartmann is back in Thailand this week to present “Who are the Shan: Lessons in Linguistic Geography” March 18 at the Conference on Innovation in Education at Mahidol University in Bangkok. Hartmann also travelled to Thailand to be present for the defense of Mahidol PhD candidate Itsarate Dolphen’s dissertation, “A Comparison of Pronouns in Narrative Discourse in Southeast Asian Languages.” Dolphen conducted part of his PhD research at NIU as a 2011–12 scholar-in-residence with Hartmann, his American co-advisor. “I am greatly indebted to Professor Hartmann for his valuable comments to make my research more complete,” Dolphen wrote in his acknowledgements. “Northern Illinois University provided me with computer access and library borrowing privileges. Professor Hartmann likewise provided me with office space and housing. I really appreciate their kindness very much. I will not forget it.”

Explore your artistic side and make watercolor batik with the Southeast Asia Club from 5 to 6 p.m. April 7 at “Taste of Asia,” the Asian American Center’s weekly Ohana! event at the Capitol Room of the Holmes Student Center.

7. Summer study abroad in Bali, Thailand and beyond
Interested in learning more about Southeast Asia, immersing yourself in a language or getting study-abroad college credit? CSEAS associates Andrea Molnar (Anthropology) and Jui-Ching Wang (School of Music) are actively recruiting for their study abroad programs in Thailand and Bali. NIU also sponsors Summer Study Abroad in Laos with the San Francisco-based Center for Lao Studies. Apply online or through NIU’s Study Abroad Office in 417 Williston (email niuabroad@niu.edu or phone 815-753-0700). Some partial travel funding is available; contact the Study Abroad office. Deadline to apply for the Study Abroad Travel Grant is April 1. Program information is also available at CSEAS.

• Explore cultural diversity in Thailand
Anthropology professor Andrea Molnar will reprise her 2011 program, Cultural Diversity in Thailand, June 8–July 3. Molnar’s program will introduce students to Thailand’s diverse cultural groups and explore the relationship between the dominant majority and minorities of the country. The course uses a political anthropology perspective while focusing on cultural issues and their historical background. Deadline to apply EXTENDED: March 31. Also, see the program’s Facebook page. Two $1,500 scholarships are available from the NIU Thai Studies Committee. Submit one-page statement of interest, letter of support from Molnar, letter of recommendation, and either a transcript (for undergraduates) or an explanation of graduate work progress from program advisor (for graduate students). Grant funded by the NIU Thai Teaching and Research Fund. Email Chalermsee Olson at eteolson@niu.edu.

• Experience Balinese music, dance and culture in Indonesia
For the second year, music professor Jui-Ching Wang will take students to a village location in Bali, Indonesia to learn about Balinese music, dance, theater, architecture, art and crafts in her program Experiencing the Arts in Bali, July 4–25. Students will live in a traditional village compound and participate in festivals to celebrate the anniversary of the local temples. “The ceremonial nature of the arts reflects the multiple layers of religious practices and philosophies embedded in Balinese society,” Wang says. For details, see the program’s Facebook page. Deadline to apply: April 15.

• Learn Lao language and culture in Laos
NIU also sponsors Summer Study Abroad in Laos (SAIL), a five-week Lao language and culture program June 27–July 31 in cooperation with the San Francisco-based Center for Lao Studies. Based in Vientiane, Laos, the program offers students language and cultural lessons as well as exposure to Lao history and culture. Deadline to apply: April 1.
8. Berkeley historian to keynote Spring Student Conference
University of California-Berkeley historian and Cambodian specialist Penny Edwards, author of Cambodge: The Cultivation of a Nation (1860–1945) (University of Hawai’i Press, 2007) will give the keynote address at the Southeast Asia Club’s 2015 spring student conference Saturday, April 25. The conference begins at 9 a.m. in Room 315 Altgeld. The conference theme is “Identity Narratives.” Awards will be given for best undergraduate and graduate papers.

9. Distance-taught Vietnamese to be offered in fall 2015
After successfully piloting distance-taught Vietnamese this year, NIU will be offering Vietnamese via distance learning with the University of Wisconsin-Madison next year. The course, FLST 103-104, will be taught by a UW-Madison instructor, but NIU students will receive credit from NIU. Interested students should contact CSEAS Director Judy Ledgerwood at 815-753-1771 or by email at cseas@niu.edu (please put Vietnamese in the subject line).

10. Save the dates: Alumni Connects, world music, student conference
- April 1: Alumni Connect via Skype with Colette Morgan (BA political science, 2011) of US-ASEAN Business Council, Washington, DC, Noon, Room 337, Founders Library.
- April 3: Alumni Connect with Punchada “Art” Sirivunnabood (PhD political science, 2010) of Mahidol University, Consultant for Thai ministries of Defense and Foreign Affairs, 1–2 p.m., Pottenger House.
- April 9–11: Teaching World Music Symposium, NIU School of Music.
- April 11: Teaching Southeast Asia Performing Arts Forum, 8:30 a.m. to noon, followed by World Music Concert, 3 p.m., Boutell Hall.
- Through May: “Curated by DeKalb: 50 Years of the Anthropology Museum,” 50th anniversary exhibition including SEA artifacts. Admission free.

11. April World Music Symposium includes SEA forum, music concert
The NIU Music Building will be resonating with the sounds of world music April 9–11 when the 2015 World Music Symposium: From the Exotic to the Global takes place. Music educators, ethnomusicologists, composers, performers and interdisciplinary scholars are invited to attend. The third day of the conference will feature a Teaching Southeast Asia Performing Arts Forum (with funding provided for community college educators to attend). The symposium, organized by CSEAS associate Jui-Ching Wang (School of Music), honors Kuo-Huang Han, music professor emeritus and founder of the NIU Gamelan Ensemble, and marks the 40th anniversary of the world music program at NIU. The program concludes with the annual World Music concert, which will include Balinese gamelan, marching gamelan, Thai folk music and the NIU Chamber Choir performing an Indonesian folk song, at 3 p.m. in Boutell Hall. For information, email jcwang@niu.edu or see the symposium website.
12. Southeast Asia Research Group to hold April meeting in Chicago
The Southeast Asia Research Group, established in 2013 to highlight promising Southeast Asia political research by young social scientists, will hold its third annual meeting April 24–25 at the Club Quarters, 75 E. Wacker Drive, in Chicago. Registration is $75, which covers all activities and meals on Friday and Saturday. Registration deadline: March 25.

13. Overseas language, exchange, and area studies programs

- US-Indonesia Society Summer Language Study, June 2–July 25. Ten-week intensive program at Gadjah Mada University in Yogyyakarta. Admissions based on availability of program funding. Deadline to apply: March 31. For details, see website.
- Southeast Asia in Context, June 22-July 25. Five-week program through National University of Singapore. Includes field trips to Myanmar or Indonesia. For details, see website.

Note: Students taking language or area studies abroad through non-NIU programs are advised to work through NIU’s Study Abroad office, 417 Williston Hall. By doing so, students can receive NIU credit and possibly have NIU financial aid apply, in addition to receiving liability and insurance protection.

14. Money for study

USINDO
- US-Indonesia Society Summer Language Study, June 2–July 25. Ten-week intensive program at Gadjah Mada University in Yogyyakarta. Admissions based on availability of program funding. Deadline to apply: March 31. For details, see website. Students taking language or area studies abroad through non-NIU programs are advised to work through NIU’s Study Abroad office, 417 Williston Hall. By doing so, students can receive NIU credit and possibly have NIU financial aid apply.

NIU
- Undergraduate Student Engagement Fund: Need travel money for a conference, a stipend to work on a faculty-mentored research project, or funding to help pay for a study abroad program? The Office of Student Engagement and Experiential Learning and the College of Liberal Arts & Sciences is now providing funding for undergraduates for just such activities. Students in good academic standing may apply on their own behalf or faculty may apply on behalf of a student. Awards range from $250 to $2,500. Deadline for spring 2016 funds is Oct. 1. For details, see program website.

McGill University
- Dissertation workshop: Institute for the Study of International Development invites applications from advanced PhD students. All areas of development studies welcome including political science, economics, anthropology, sociology, geography and history. Funding for accepted students. Email Director Philip Oxhorn at Philip.oxhorn@mcgill.ca.

University of Leeds (U.K.)
- Thai Studies research scholarships: Three scholarships (approximately $18,000 each) offered by the university’s School of Languages, Cultures and Societies for graduate students to undertake field research in Thailand. Deadline to apply: June 26. See website.

Rotary International
- Rotary Peace Fellowships: Fully paid fellowships for master’s degree study offered at six universities worldwide. Deadline to apply for 2016 fellowships: July 2015. See website.
15. Job/internship opportunities

VietAID
- Executive Director: Vietnamese American Initiative for Development in Boston. Deadline to apply: March 31. For details, see VietAID website.

US Department of State
- Fall 2015 Student Internship Program: 10-week unpaid internships for undergraduate and graduate students at Washington headquarters and US embassies, consulates and missions worldwide. See program website.

USINDO
- Program Associate/Editor/Executive Assistant: Full-time position with US-Indonesia Society in Washington DC. For information, email dmerrill@usindo.org or call 202-232-1400. Position posted on USINDO website.

Room to Read
- Positions open: San Francisco-based organization that helps develop literacy skills among primary and secondary school students. Asia Regional Director (based in Asia) and Country Operations for Southeast Asia (based in Cambodia, Laos or Vietnam). See website.

Asia Society
- Career opportunities: Internships and jobs posted regularly on website.

Association of Southeast Asian Nations
- Jobs listed under Opportunities tab of ASEAN website.

Devex: Do Good. Do It Well
- International aid and development jobs in 1,000 agencies, companies and NGOs in 100 countries. See website.

DevoMetJOBS.org
- International development jobs and consulting opportunities. See website.

Hess International Educational Group
- Teach English across Asia: Taiwan-based organization offers free training, benefits, and flex scheduling. Email NIU alum Derek Wright at derek.wright@hess.com.tw or see website.

Idealist.org
- Privately funded website offers searchable database of nonprofit international jobs and volunteer opportunities. See the Idealist website.

ReliefWeb
- Specialized digital service of the UN Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs that posts jobs regularly. See website.

World Health Organization
- Global health agency in the United Nations System encourages online applications for potential employment. See WHO website.

16. Conferences, calls for papers and workshops

NEW
- Artistic Inventions: Histories, Cartographies and Politics in Asia, March 30–31, Hong Kong Baptist University. See conference website.

AAS-in-Asia, June 22–24, Academia Sinica, Taipei, Taiwan. Theme: Asia in Motion: ideas, Institutions, Identities. See conference website.

The Emergence of Theravada Buddhism in Cambodia: Southeast Asian Perspectives, July 3, SOAS University of London. See symposium website.

International Convention of Asia Scholars 9, July 5–9, Adelaide, Australia. See conference website.

5th International Conference on Lao Studies, July 8–10, Thammasat University, Bangkok. See conference website.

4th International Conference on International Relations and Development (ICIRD), July 9–10, Mahidol University, Salaya, Thailand. Call for abstracts and panel proposals. Deadline: March 30. See conference website.

EuroSEAS 2015, Aug. 11–14, University of Vienna, Austria. See conference website.

NUS/ARI Workshop: International Medical Travel and the Politics of Transnational Mobility in Asia, Aug. 26–27, National University of Singapore Asia Research Institute. Call for papers. Partial or full travel funding available. Deadline: March 31. See website.

17. Southeast Asia cultural opportunities

- Thai Cultural and Fine Arts Institute of Chicago offers classes in Thai language, dance and music among other programs. See website for details or phone 312-725-0640.
- “Curated by DeKalb: 50 Years of the Anthropology Museum,” on display at the NIU Anthropology Museum through the 2014–15 academic year. Exhibit features items from the museum’s collection of ethnographic and archeological objects, many from SEA. Museum hours: 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday through Friday, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday. Admission free.
- “Remembering the Killing Fields” exhibit on display at the Cambodian American Heritage Museum and Killing Fields Memorial, 2831 W. Lawrence Ave., Chicago. The Cambodian Association of Illinois also holds free Cambodian music and dance lessons.
- The Indonesian consulate in Chicago offers free Saturday classes: Indonesian language classes at 10:30 a.m. (intermediate) and 1 p.m. (children’s class); Indonesian traditional dance, 2 to 4 p.m.; and Javanese gamelan, 4 to 6 p.m. All classes held at the Indonesian Cultural Center, 711 W. Grand Avenue. For info, call 312-920-1880, ext. 104/105, or email icc@indonesiachicago.org. Also see the consulate’s Facebook page. NEW
Be a CSEAS donor

You can help keep Southeast Asian studies program at NIU vibrant with your contribution through the NIU Foundation. To contribute online, go to the Donate Now tab at the NIU Foundation website. Under Designations, select “college or university wide program,” then write in “Center for Southeast Asian Studies.” If your employer matches your charitable donations, please take a moment to fill out that form. We appreciate every gift. Thank you!

Persons with a disability who need assistance at any CSEAS event may contact Office Manager Rita Miller at 815-753-1771 or ram@niu.edu. To no longer receive this bulletin, reply to this e-mail with request to remove your name. Please specify your name or organization with which this mailing is linked. Thank you.