A paid year in Indonesia? A six-week fellowship in Siem Reap, Cambodia? Advanced immersion language training? Find funding for research, fellowships, language study, conference travel, and more in our Money for Study listings below. Check it out. Deadlines to apply coming up in February with some later in March and April.
1. It’s Lunar New Year time with the Southeast Asia Club
The Southeast East Asia Club will mark the Year of the Monkey at its annual Lunar New Year celebration Monday, Feb. 8, from 6 to 8 p.m. in Cole Hall. Come for a Buddhist blessing from the monks at Phap Lam Temple in Rockford, I Ching readings, Indonesian dancing, Asian refreshments and a red-envelope scavenger hunt through the new Hmong exhibit, “Storytelling: Hmong American Voices,” in the Pick Museum. The entire event is free. The museum exhibit focuses on the history of life in Laos continuing through the 1953–75 Laotian Civil War (known by Hmong veterans as the Secret War) and prominently feature the oral histories and material culture of Hmong Americans. The exhibit will also spotlight the museum’s permanent collection of Hmong textiles.

2. Spring lecture series to resume Feb. 19 NEW
The Center’s spring lecture series will be back in action at noon Friday, Feb. 19, in Room 100 Campus Life Building with CSEAS associate and Center for Burma Studies Director Catherine Raymond and graduate student Carmin Berchiolly giving a presentation on reverse glass painting in Burma. Indonesian lunches will also resume on this date. Stay tuned for details on order.

3. How do you say ‘blue’ in Bahasa? DeKalb elementary school students learn how Twenty-five eager young learners at Lincoln Elementary School in DeKalb gave Wina Tirtapradja their rapt attention Wednesday, Feb. 3, as the Indonesian Foreign Language Teaching Assistant (FLTA) taught them how to say the names of colors in Bahasa at the school’s after-school program. CSEAS is hosting four Southeast Asia after-school programs at Lincoln during the month of February. Assisted by CSEAS’s three other Southeast Asian language FLTAs at NIU this year—Thandar Swe (Burmese), Marie Gianina Concepcion Decano (Tagalog) and Piansin Pinchai (Thai)—Wina also taught the students (and two parents who joined in) how to make shadow puppets during the hour-long session. The four FLTAs will be teaching three more Wednesday programs at Lincoln, each one focusing on a different country (Burma, the Philippines and Thailand). The program is one of CSEAS’s K–12 outreach initiatives.

4. International Burma Studies Conference 2016 set for October at NIU NEW
Scholars from around the world will convene at NIU Oct. 7–9 for the International Burma Studies Conference 2016. The conference invites proposals for individual papers or entire panels. Deadline to submit proposals: April 15. Prospective participants must submit a title and 150–250 word abstract via attached Word document or pasted into an email (include name, affiliation, and contact information). Panel organizers should submit abstracts and participant information. Email to
5. Distance Vietnamese to be added to fall 2016 SEA language lineup NEW Beginning Vietnamese will be added to NIU’s SEA language and literature lineup in fall 2016. FLST 103-104 will be offered as a distance-learning course through the University of Wisconsin-Madison. It will be taught by a UW instructor but NIU students will receive credit from NIU. If interested, contact CSEAS Director Judy Ledgerwood at 815-753-1771 or by email at cseas@niu.edu (put Vietnamese in the subject line).

6. Call for papers: Spring Southeast Asia Student Conference
The Southeast Asia Club invites papers from undergraduate and graduate students for its 2016 spring Southeast Asia Student conference Saturday, March 26, in Room 100 Campus Life. The conference theme is “From City to Village: Urbanization & Southeast Asia.” Papers may be submitted on related topics or any relevant to the region. Abstracts are due Feb. 25. The keynote speaker will be University of Leeds political scientist Duncan McCargo.

7. The match game: Apply for CSEAS match to Graduate School travel funding
CSEAS will match up to $250 in Graduate School travel grants for students traveling to out-of-town (or out-of-country) conferences to present. If you will be receiving Graduate School travel funding, contact CSEAS Office Manager Rita Miller about the CSEAS match. If you are considering applying (next 2015–16 deadline is March 21), you must have completed one year of school with 3.5 GPA or above. See Graduate School website for details on its travel funding; submit applications to Dean, Graduate School, 223 Adams Hall.

8. SEAYLP and PYLP want you: Be a host family for spring SEA exchange programs
CSEAS and the International Training Office (ITO) are actively seeking host families for two spring Southeast Asia exchange programs sponsored by the US State Department. CSEAS is looking for 33 families to act as hosts April 9–17 for fifty high school students and ten adult leaders from ten Southeast Asian countries participating in the April 5–30 session of the US State Department’s Southeast Asia Youth Leadership Program (SEAYLP). Students are placed in pairs and adults may be placed as singles. Host families provide a bed for each participant, breakfast each day and most dinners, all meals during any weekend days at home, and transportation to and from class sessions at NIU. Host family orientation is scheduled for 6:30 to 8
