Virtual Economics® Version 4.5

The workshop will feature the Virtual Economics® Version 4.5 flash drive, which provides resources for teachers to enhance existing social studies, math, and science curricula. Participants will navigate this easy-to-use, updateable resource of economics lessons that is linked to teaching tips, state standards, and motivating videos on current topics.

Whether you’re looking for comprehensive lesson plans, quiz and test materials, or after-school interactive activities to challenge small groups of students, you will find resources that are easy to use and just a click away.

VE 4.5 Features:
• New Publications
• More Flash Drive Memory
• Automatic Lesson Updates
• Multiple Search Options
• Useful Tips
• Glossary

To register send an email to Judith Dymond (jdymond@niu.edu). Please include “VE4.5 Workshop” in the subject line of your email and include the following information:
