The Huskie Service Scholars program pairs upper classmen with first generation and/or low-income freshmen and transfer students with the aim of developing a supportive peer network. Monthly meetings provide collaboration, training, and reflection opportunities. Teams volunteer weekly on campus and in the community.

As a Huskie Service Scholar, students will:

- Complete 300 hours of combined service and mentoring
- Attend monthly cohort meetings
- Develop a supportive peer network
- Serve with campus and community sites
- Participate in service, training, and reflection
- Receive $1,132 in tuition at completion of the program

Huskie Service Scholars must:

- Be a freshman or first-semester transfer student
- Be first-generation or Pell Grant eligible
- Commit to completing 300 hours of service/mentoring during the 2015-16 academic year
- Maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher
- Earn a passing grade in a minimum of 12 credit hours each semester

For more information visit:

go.niu.edu/huslieservicescholars

Applications are accepted until spots are filled. Preferred deadline of July 17, 2015.

For more information: Engage@niu.edu or (815) 753-8154.