Fast Facts

• Six levels totaling 314,000 sq. feet
• Over 2 million print volumes
• 200+ research databases
• Access to more than 40,000 electronic journals
Subject Specialists

- Masters in Library Science, plus additional advanced degree and/or experience in the subject area
- Collaborate on creating assignments / support to students completing them
- General or specialized library instruction for your students (our place or yours)
Subject Specialists (cont’d.)
Reference Services

- In person
- Over the phone
- Chat, text, or e-mail
Reserves

- In print
  (come to the library)

- Online
  (access anytime)
Interlibrary Loan

Borrow materials that we don’t own from other institutions

• Books
  (via the I-Share & WorldCat catalogs)

• Articles and other materials
  (via NIUIILLIad)
Library Services for People with Disabilities

- Designated staff person
- Specialized study room with assistive technology
Media

Films (DVD, VHS)

- Show in class
- Check out and take home
- Watch in the library’s viewing rooms
Special Services for Faculty

- Campus Document Delivery
  Need print? We deliver!

- Study carrels
  Your third space

- Check-out / Request by proxy
  Someone else can do your dirty work
Special Services (cont’d.)

• Retrieval from the stacks (“Paging”)
  Your items (book, films, periodicals—anything) will be ready and waiting for you at the Circulation Desk

Convenience service, not urgency—please allow 2-3 day turn around time Questions?

Leanne VandeCreek
lvandecreek@niu.edu
815-753-4025