

Presidential Teaching Professor Seminar

Innovation Management in Local Government

Gerald Gabris, Ph.D.

Presidential Teaching Professor Department of Public Administration

During his presentation Dr. Gerald Gabris will address how local governments adapt to complex change in their environments through innovation. In particular, Dr. Gabris will highlight the factors associated with the professional management and legislative behavior in local governments that increase their innovation management capacity. Unless local governments have the capacity to innovate, our quality of life is likely to diminish.

Tuesday, October 7, 2008

Capitol Room, Holmes Student Center

11:30 am – 12:00 pm, Refreshments

12:00-1:00 pm, Presentation and Q&A

No registration is required—Everyone is welcome!

Sponsored by Office of the Provost &
Faculty Development and Instructional Design Center