POSITION DESCRIPTION
UNIV 101/201 is a one credit-hour, elective course coordinated through First- and Second-Year Experience. UNIV exists to help new students make a successful transition to college life at Northern. Peer Instructors work with UNIV instructors to serve as resource persons for new students. They typically assist in planning course activities, facilitating class discussions, and providing information to students on a peer level. Placement as a Peer Instructor is both an honor and a rewarding opportunity for professional and personal growth. This is a volunteer position open to undergraduate students who meet the criteria below.

REQUIREMENTS
Students must meet the following qualifications:
- Have a cumulative GPA of 2.50 or higher
- Prior UNIV 101/201 students preferable
- Demonstrate an ability to communicate effectively to a class of first-year students
- Be able to serve as a positive role model for first-year students
- Have 3-4 hours per week to commit to the PI position during fall 2014
- Be able to speak effectively on:
  1. Personal management skills (time, stress, health)
  2. Academic achievement skills (study, note-taking, test-taking)
  3. Living in a diverse community
  4. Getting connected (clubs, jobs, campus activities)

TIME COMMITMENT
All Peer Instructors must attend two training sessions: one in April and one in August. During summer 2014, Peer Instructors will be assigned to a section of UNIV 101 or 201 and will be expected to attend all class meetings in the fall. UNIV 101/201 classes typically meet twice a week for 50-75 minutes for the first 12 weeks of the semester. Meetings with the instructor(s) are also required as needed. There may be additional training opportunities and PI meetings throughout the fall 2014 semester with additional opportunities for leadership roles.

APPLICATION & SELECTION PROCESS
Please return completed application to First- and Second-Year Experience office, located in the Chick Evans Field House room 101. Applications must be received by 4:00 p.m. on Friday, December 6, 2013 to be considered for the priority deadline. Applications will be accepted through Friday, April 4, 2014 but with limited position availability. The first round of interviews will begin after winter break starting Thursday, January 23, 2014. You will be notified of the position in late January. The second round of interviews will be conducted in late March.
