LATINO PANETHNIC POLITICS in CHICAGO: SOCIAL ACTIVISM and GRASSROOTS ORIGINS

Lilia Fernández, Associate Professor
The Ohio State University

March 3, 2016
7:00 pm
Latino Center, Room 121,
515 Garden Rd., DeKalb IL

Lilia Fernandez, author of Brown in the Windy City: Mexicans and Puerto Ricans in Postwar Chicago and Associate Professor in history at The Ohio State University, will present a paper entitled “Latino Panethnic Politics in Chicago: Social Activism and Grassroots Origins.” Simón Weffer-Elizondo of NIU’s department of sociology will respond.

For more information call 815.753.1531