Northern Illinois University Atlantic World Discussion Group

Spring 2011 Schedule

This semester the group will usually meet on Wednesdays at 4:30 at Rammy’s Pub and Sub on Lincoln Highway in DeKalb. Faculty, students, and others in any discipline interested in the Atlantic World from the 15th to the 19th centuries are welcome. We discuss published essays, faculty and graduate student research, and other issues. This semester’s theme is “Revolution and Emancipation,” and most readings will reflect this. Information on the group and readings are posted on the NIU History Department website, under “Programs and Events.” Contact Prof. Aaron Fogleman in the NIU History Department or at aaronfogleman@niu.edu if you are interested.

January 19  Meet, talk, plan.

February 2  Snow Day – no meeting.

March 16  Spring Break

March 30  Pamela Scully and Diana Paton (eds.), Gender and Slave Emancipation in the Atlantic World (Durham, 2005), Introduction, 1-34.

April 27  Roundtable Discussion on revolution and emancipation in the Atlantic World.