Please join us in welcoming
Dr. Marcia Chatelain to NIU!

Dr. Chatelain is an Assistant Professor of History at Georgetown University, author of South Side Girls: Growing Up in the Great Migration, and creator of the #fergusonsyllabus.

Dr. Chatelain’s seminar,
“Black Girlhood in the Age of #SayHerName,” will take place at 2 p.m. on Tuesday, March 1st, in Reavis 103.
The seminar is open to ALL graduate students.
Undergraduate students are welcome, space permitting.

Dr. Chatelain’s public lecture, “Gender and #BlackLivesMatter: Lessons Learned from a History of Struggle,” will take place at 6 p.m. on Tuesday, March 1st, in LaTourette 200.
The lecture is open to all!

For more information email wgs@niu.edu or call 753-1038.
Sponsors: Center for the Study of Women, Gender & Sexuality,
Department of History and Graduate Colloquium Committee.