CHECKLIST OF REQUIREMENTS

Graduate Catalog 2007-08 or Later

Name: _____________________________ Primary Field: _____________________________

A. COURSE REQUIREMENTS (Fill in details on course form.)

1. At least 36 hours in all.
2. At least 18 hours (including research) in primary field.
3. At least 12 hours in Option courses, including HIST 592 and HIST 600.
4. At least 24 of the 36 hours in history field courses.
   At least 6 of the 30 hours in reading seminars (any field). [Note: this requirement, together with the 9 hours of research (see below) and the 3-6 hours of internship, meets the Graduate School’s stipulation that at least half of the minimum number of hours required for a graduate degree must be in 600-700 level courses].

B. RESEARCH REQUIREMENT

At least 9 hours of research in primary field. Normally fulfilled by two 3-hour research seminars and one independent research course (756).

1. Approved research paper filed in the History Graduate Office. Rarely do M.A.s in history take the thesis option. A thesis must be defended and approved not only by the department, but also by the Graduate School.

C. RESEARCH PROFICIENCY REQUIREMENT (These are minimum requirements: option chosen must be consistent with research interests and have the approval of the field advisor. Quantitative methods requires approval of the department.)

EITHER  (a) average proficiency in one foreign language as defined by the Graduate School
OR  (b) average proficiency in quantitative methods as defined by the History Department and Grad Advisor (see Handbook)

Note: Students majoring in United States history who do not intend to apply to the Ph.D. program are not required to demonstrate this proficiency.

D. COMPREHENSIVE EXAMINATION (Take after at least 24 hours of courses)

By two historiographical papers in the major field. Topics are to be decided by the two examiners. The papers are due in the History Office by the deadline established by the Graduate School (around the ninth week of a given semester) in the student’s final semester of the M.A. program.

AN OPTIONAL FOLLOW-UP ORAL EXAM MAY BE REQUESTED BY EITHER THE STUDENT OR THE COMMITTEE.

E. APPLY FOR GRADUATION TO GRADUATE SCHOOL by a deadline established each semester.
