University Honors House Resident Agreement

1. Professional Lifestyle and Attitude
   All University Honors House residents will live in a community of learners, exemplifying the lifestyle of a Honors student. The House objective is to provide an academic environment conducive to serious study, as well as an atmosphere supportive of academics and social fellowship as well as cooperative living. Residents are expected respect the rights of other floor residents by maintaining the proper lifestyle requirements by adhering to the standards and policies of the University Honors Program, University Honors House, their NIU Residence Hall Contract and the NIU Student Code of Conduct.

2. Grade Point Average
   Remain in good standing with the University Honors Program. This requires that Lower Division Honor students earn a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0 with 3.20 in Honors coursework. Upper Division Honor students must hold at least a 3.2 GPA in both their Honors and overall coursework.

3. Program Status
   Students interested in living in the Honors House must apply for admission and be accepted into the University Honors Program.

4. Floor Meetings
   Attend floor organization meetings as designated by the floor's Community Advisor.

5. Student Engagement
   Attend at minimum four events as organized by their House Leaders each academic year.

Students who fail to maintain the Grade Point Average (GPA) requirements for two consecutive semesters, or fail to meet the program requirements, will be asked to leave the University Honors House after the academic year.

The above criteria must be met to remain a resident in the University Honors House. If you have questions or concerns, please contact Vanessa Segundo, Assistant Director for Programming and Communication, at (815) 753-9505 or vsegundo1@niu.edu if you have questions or concerns.
