

FAQs – Phi Beta Delta Honor Society

NIU Chapter Name: ZETA GAMMA

What is an honor society?

- A group formed to recognize special achievement in a University

Why does the name sound like a fraternity?

- The Greek letters stand for words that represent our ideals.
- Fraternities/sororities do this, too.

Why should I want to join Phi Beta Delta?

- It looks good on your resumé when you look for a job!
- Phi Beta Delta promotes international ideals.
- Some of your professors will also become members.
- You get an awesome medallion to wear at graduation.

What are the membership requirements for Phi Beta Delta?

For undergraduate students:

- Junior or senior standing at time of election
- At least 30 hours earned at Northern Illinois University
- Cumulative Grade Point Average of 3.2 or better
- Successful international experience, such as study abroad

For graduate students:

- At least 12 hours earned at Northern Illinois University
- Cumulative Grade Point Average of 3.5 or better
- Successful international experience, such as study or research abroad

For more information:
Deb Pierce, International Programs
753-9526 or dpierce@niu.edu