CHANGES IN EMPLOYMENT AND COURSE OVERLOAD POLICIES:

Over the past few months, there have been some important changes in College of Law policy that increase the freedom of law students to make decisions with respect to outside employment and course selection. These changes have the accompanying (and presumably welcome) effect of reducing the paperwork required to be submitted by College of Law students.

The most important development is the abolition of the 20-hour-per-week employment restriction. As explained in an e-mail to all students on August 25, 2014, the faculty voted to rescind the 20-hour rule following an August 11 vote by the American Bar Association House of Delegates to remove the restriction from the ABA accreditation standards. Law students will therefore no longer be required to file employment certification forms each semester. As noted in the e-mail, however, the faculty strongly recommends that all students place primary emphasis on their law school classes and studies to maximize their academic success in law school and on the bar exam (particularly in view of plans to increase the Illinois bar cut score by eight points beginning July 2015). First-year students in particular are urged to treat the study of law as a full-time job, keeping all outside distractions such as employment and participation in student organizations and other outside activities to the minimum necessary to maintain financial viability and social and emotional health and balance.

Last winter, the faculty also voted to approve a change in the requirements for upper-level students taking more than 16 credit hours during a semester. Under the new policy, only students whose cumulative grade point average is below 2.4 will be required to submit a petition to Associate Dean Coles for approval to take more than 16 hours. All students will, however, continue to be subject to the rule prohibiting registration for more than 18 hours a semester, for which no exceptions will be made. Any questions regarding the above changes should be directed to Dean Coles.

LAW LIBRARY NEWS YOU CAN USE:

Attention 2Ls and 3Ls. Beginning at the end of September, evening access to the law library will be by NIU OneCard in order to provide a law student, faculty and staff-only environment in the evenings. The door on the right as you enter the law library has been modified to provide this access. The door to the left will be locked at 6:00 p.m. each night; thus you will need your NIU OneCard to enter.

All students with the old NIU OneCard will need to get a new prox card. As long as you have your current working NIU OneCard there should be no charge associated with upgrading to a new prox card. If you do not have your NIU OneCard, the OneCard office will charge you a $25 lost card fee. Over the next couple of weeks, bring your current NIU OneCard to the OneCard office in the Holmes Student Center, identify yourself as a law student and ask for the prox card. The office is aware of this upgrade and has a list of all students. If you have a card that provides access to the student space on the north end of the building, you do not need to get a new card. If you have any questions regarding this process, please contact Professor Clarke at tclarke@niu.edu.

Library Hours. The Law Library will be open Monday, August 18, through Tuesday, November 25, 2014 as follows:

- Monday - Thursday: 7:30 a.m. - 11:30 p.m.*
- Friday: 7:30 a.m. - 8:00 p.m.
- Saturday: 10:00 a.m. - 8:00 p.m.
- Sunday: 12:00 noon - 11:30 p.m.

Patron Conduct Policy. The Law Library is committed to providing a safe and secure environment for its patrons and staff that is conducive to teaching, learning, study and research. Towards that end, we have revised and reorganized our patron conduct policy. For the full text of the policy, please see http://law.niu.edu/law/library/policies_patron_conduct.shtml

Library Resources.

- Online Research Center: http://www.niu.edu/law/library/onlineresearchcenter.shtml

Students should not hesitate to ask the law librarians or staff when they have a research question or any general questions while getting acclimated to law school. Thanks! ~ Heidi

PRO BONO OPPORTUNITIES:

Looking for Pro Bono Opportunities in Illinois? If you are looking for pro bono opportunities, please visit www.LawStudents.IllinoisProBono.org. On that site, students can download a free app that offers three tools: (1) legal resources on Illinois law, (2) volunteer postings search, and (3) upcoming legal events, including MCLE training. The app is available for Apple and Android devices and bolsters volunteer work by offering a statewide search for volunteer opportunities, comprehensive manuals, articles, and a calendar of training sessions and events to support those opportunities. Download to your device today!
EXTERNSHIPS: The specialized Juvenile Court Externship will be available to students this fall and spring in DeKalb and Kane Counties. If you are interested in family or child law and wish to enroll in this experiential course, please contact Professor Lawrence Schlam at lschlam@niu.edu.

OFFICE OF BUDGET AND RECORDS:

Lockers:
- If you currently have a locker, that locker will be yours the entire time you are enrolled as a student here in the College of Law.
- If you do not have a locker and would like one, you must e-mail your request to Julie Mahoney-Krzyzek jmahoney@niu.edu. A locker will be assigned to you.
- If a locker that is not registered with our office is found to have a lock on it, the lock will be cut off and contents emptied out. Replacing any locks that have to be cut off for this purpose will be your responsibility.

Mailboxes:
- New mailboxes have been created for all students.
- These are for correspondence only. Do not put books, DVDs, clothing, etc. in them. There simply is not enough room for extra items, and it is very hard on the hanging files.
- If you had books, etc. in them over the summer, you can pick the items up in SP285
- Please check your mailbox regularly and do not let items accumulate.

E-Mail:
- The NIU Z-E-mail address is the official e-mail for all students. Please check it frequently to ensure receipt of all official notices, especially if you have forwarded the Z-email to another address. Communications do not always forward as expected and can be lost, dumped into trash or blocked.

Reimbursement Process:

Purchases: For purchases on behalf of NIU College of Law events: Expenses must be approved by Office of Budget & Records before purchase is made. NIU Accounting reimbursement procedures change occasionally, so to ensure your reimbursement will be able to be processed, please contact us even if you have prior permission of faculty or staff member.

Travel: For reimbursement for travel on behalf of NIU College of Law you must have approval of the Dean before the travel occurs. You must also see Julie (SP285) or Christina (SP280A2) before travel occurs to ensure that your reimbursement will be processed with the appropriate required documentation.
OFFICE OF ADMISSIONS AND FINANCIAL AID:

Information Regarding Scholarships and Writing Competitions. Each year, there are a number of opportunities for students to obtain additional financial assistance to help pay for the costs of attending law school. In particular, many scholarships and writing competition prizes are available, and the number of students applying for many of them is often low (increasing the chances of success for individual applicants). For a list of these scholarship and writing competitions, see the file that is being e-mailed along-side this week’s edition of the Docket and is made available in separate copies on tables on the first and second floor of the law school. Do not miss the many opportunities available this Fall, as indicated in those listings. If you have any questions, please contact the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid at 815-753-8595 or lawadm@niu.edu or stop by Room 151.

1L STUDENTS:

Do you need something to make your resume “stand out” at an interview? Impress NIU alums you meet at law firms? Not sure yet that you will enjoy the practice of law and would like a “back-up” plan? Need something to relieve stress for an hour or two each week while on campus? Then audition for the SCHLAM-TONES, the premiere a cappella vocal group at NIUCOL. If playing an instrument or singing in any context has left you with a good sense of pitch, rhythm, harmony – and the ability to “carry a tune” – contact Professor Schlam at lschlam@niu.edu for an informal audition. Due to present openings, preference will be given to basses, baritones and second tenors, but all potential singers, male or female, with these skills should audition.

The Docket is published every Monday by Associate Dean Kathleen Coles. Announcements for publication must be submitted to Lisa Hoebing in Room 276 or by e-mail to lhoebing@niu.edu no later than 12:00 p.m. on Thursdays.
