The state will start next year with a $13 billion deficit.

There are currently 6 applications for the Dependent Scholarship Award.
D. Visiting Committees/Guests
Julia Spears and Greg Barker gave a presentation at the beginning of the meeting on the National Survey of Student Engagement – Preliminary Findings – Fall 2009.

NIU students who took this survey feel relatively challenged academically and have good student/faculty interactions. NIU’s benchmark was higher than other Great Lakes schools, Carnegie, and NSSE schools for academics and faculty/staff interactions. It was the same for supportive environment for seniors and active and collaborative learning environment but freshmen do not feel the same way. NIU is lagging behind others in enriching educational experiences with both seniors and freshmen.

Julia and Greg are going across campus to inform people of the results, raise awareness, and to deliver the recommendations developed from these results. These results will also be helpful when looking at ways to engage NIU students and determining ways to continue their careers at NIU. The website for this survey is: www.niu.edu/nsse.

E. EAC
There was a discussion on the wording for the proposed SURS furlough amendment. Sara passed around the proposed changes for review.

The University of Illinois-Urbana/Champaign is offering a Voluntary Separation Incentive Program for Academic Professionals and Civil Service employees where they must separate on or before August 15, 2010, but their department has to pay 50% of their salary as a lump sum with no SURS implication and cannot fill the position for one year. The person can then not work for one year for the University of Illinois. They also offer a Voluntary Retirement Program for Retirement-Eligible Tenured Faculty and other Academic Staff.

The next meeting is May 19, 2010.

F. UAC
Did not meet

G. Special Events Committee
No meeting was held. A discussion on this year’s StaffFest and its implications ensued. It was decided that Pam Rosenberg would reserve the room for StaffFest for the day of the event and the day before. In addition, it was determined that it would be best to keep the event going in order to boost morale for the Operating Staff employees in this time of budget restrictions. It was also suggested to see where we can cut costs for the event while still making it a fun and worthy time for everyone.
H. Baccalaureate Review
Pam Rosenberg reported that the Task Force is breaking into three subcommittees this semester. Pam is on the Critical Thinking subcommittee. These subcommittees will be charged with developing a list of meaningful and measureable student learning objectives. More information will be forthcoming in the next few months.

I. Foundations of Excellence
No report.

J. Enrollment Management Task Force
Andy Small reported that this Task Force is breaking into five subcommittees. Andy is on the Media Marketing subcommittee with 45 other people.

K. Salary Committee
The first meeting was held Tuesday, February 2, 2010, and will meet again on Friday, February 5, 2010. Alan Smith, OSC representative for this committee, discussed the role of the committee and future meetings. At the February 5, 2010, meeting in Alan Smith’s absence, Marcia Dick will represent the OSC.

IX. Old Business
None

X. New Business
A. An OSC member brought up the issue of operating staff evaluations, especially concerning the box at the top indicating if an employee is absent excessively where you mark yes or no. The member wanted to know if other offices have a policy or guidelines on “excessive absences” in their departments. There was a discussion on this topic and other items pertaining to the current evaluation form.

B. An OSC members suggested that an article be written in the Northern Staff News concerning benefits for employees, i.e. FMLA, sick days, vacation days, etc.

C. Update on campaign to endow the Operating Staff Scholarship. As of December 31, 2009, $15,652.50 has been deposited into the growing to endowment account with the NIU Foundation. Individual donations account for $14,370 of this amount, while $1,282.50 is from payroll deductions. This 62.6% of the goal achieved.

The Committee has not been publicly soliciting contributions so as to not compete with the Faculty/Staff Campaign. They have supported this campaign through articles written for the Northern Staff News.
The Committee hopes to conclude the campaign at the end of December, 2010 when they expect contributions to the growing to endowment account will have reached or exceeded $25,000.

XI. Adjournment
The meeting was adjourned at 11:00 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Pamela Rosenberg
Operating Staff Council Secretary
