WHEREAS, the Holmes Student Center turnaround is a dangerous place for pedestrians since many vehicles other than buses drive in excessive speeds with no care for safety; and

WHEREAS, the school must take steps to ensure the safety of those in that area;

Therefore, the students of Northern Illinois University represented in this Senate recommend and endorse the planned proposal to close the HSC turnaround to non Huskie Bus and hotel traffic and implementing the proposed changes to give better accessibility to pedestrians thus ensuring safety for all who use the facilities.

This act is ordered to take immediate effect.
