ENROLLED SENATE RESOLUTION
No. 33
Forty-Third Session

Author(s): Speaker Austin M. D. Quick

First Reading: 4 December 2011

WHEREAS, the city of DeKalb would like to place a police station on Lincoln Highway; and

WHEREAS, the student population would be positively impacted by the increase police presence so close to problematic areas in our community; and

WHEREAS, violence in our society is not a unique situation to NIU; and

WHEREAS, we as a community must stand up against such acts of violence on our campus and in our community:

THEREFORE, the students of Northern Illinois University represented in this Senate endorse the placement of the recommended police station and would encourage the city council and city leaders to begin the building of this facility without delay.

This act is ordered to take immediate effect.
