First Reading: May 4, 2014

WHEREAS, the university has lacked a means for students to formally seek redress of grievances;

WHEREAS, a student grievance policy ensures that students are treated with respect and dignity, which is a "cornerstone of governing all community activities" in the NIU Constitution;

WHEREAS, the Student Association has made passage of a student grievance policy a key priority;

WHEREAS, the University Council has displayed how shared governance can successfully establish policy that is in the best interest of all university constituencies;

WHEREAS, the various constituencies of University Council displayed their understanding of the necessity of this policy through a near-unanimous vote of approval;

WHEREAS, the passage of this policy would not have been possible without the research, collaboration, and advocacy of Kathleen Coles and William Pitney, who served as Chair of the University Affairs Committee in academic year 2012-2013 and 2013-2014 respectively;

Therefore, be it resolved by the students of Northern Illinois University represented in this Senate, that the University Council, William Pitney, and Kathleen Coles be commended for their unparalleled support of the rights of students in their enactment of the Student Grievance Policy.

This act is ordered to take immediate effect.
