CONSTITUTION OF THE LATINOS ENGAGING IN GRADUATE ACADEMICS
COMMUNITY (THE LEGA-C)
August 28, 2015

Article I – Name
The name of this organization shall be the Latinos Engaging in Graduate Academics Community, hereinafter referred to as the LEGA-C (or LEGA-C).

Article II – Purpose
The purpose of this organization shall be to unite Latinos in graduate school and encourage professional development. Additionally, students in this organization will serve as a resource for Latino students who are interested in pursuing a graduate degree. Community service will be an important component of this organization and members will actively seek ways to contribute to the NIU campus and DeKalb community. Students are welcome to join the LEGA-C regardless of race, ethnicity, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, and physical disabilities.

Article III – Membership
A. Qualifications of Members
1. Membership is open to all Latinos in an NIU graduate program, both full-time and part-time. Non-Latino graduate students are also welcome to join as allies. Members must be in good academic (2.0 GPA and above) and judicial standing with the university. Members are required to participate in at least two community service events during the academic year.
2. Voting privileges shall be granted only to regularly enrolled, Northern Illinois University, students who are members of the LEGA-C.
3. The responsibilities of all members shall include regularly attend meetings, participate in the required amount of community service events, assist with fundraisers, and participate in organization events in a professional manner.

B. Assessments and Dues
1. There will be no membership dues for the LEGA-C.

C. Membership Termination
1. Membership may be terminated if they are found to be representing the LEGA-C inappropriately at any events in which the LEGA-C is participating in. This includes but is not limited to fundraisers, community service events, and outreach events.

D. Etiquette and Behavior
1. Members are expected to conduct themselves in an appropriate and respectful manner during meetings, events, and any situations in which they are representing the LEGA-C. Failure to meet this expectation will result in a meeting with the executive board in where a decision will be made on how to proceed with consequences. Members who do not meet etiquette and behavior expectations run the risk of being permanently dismissed from the organization.

Article IV – Officers and Committees
A. Criteria
1. All officers must be regularly enrolled students in good standing in a Northern Illinois University graduate program.
B. Election and Removal
   1. Officers shall be elected by a simple majority vote of the members present at the designated voting meeting which will take place at the end of the spring semester. At least 70% of members must vote to constitute quorum. Terms are yearlong.
   2. A complaint must be submitted to the executive board for officer removal. The Executive board will discuss the complaint at the next meeting and determine merit.
If case is decided to have merit: The President and the advisor will meet with the officer in question to discuss concern. If the officer in question is the President, the Secretary will meet with the advisor and President. If the complaint is found to be in direct violation of the LEGA-C’s constitution or the University’s Code of Conduct, the officer in question may be dismissed from the position or from the LEGA-C immediately at the discretion of the executive board with a 2/3 affirmative vote.
   3. In the event of an officer vacancy, current members of the executive board will announce the vacancy to all members. Based on the interested responses from members, the executive board will appoint a member after consulting with one another.

C. Duties and Responsibilities
   1. The President will oversee all LEGA-C operations, represent the LEGA-C to the University, others, and in all public forums. They will serve as the main contact person for general inquiries about the LEGA-C.
   2. The Vice President will assist the President as needed and will oversee the professional development component of this organization. This could include searching for or coordination a professional development event.
   3. The Treasurer will keep all records of financial transactions including but not limited to fundraisers and scholarships. They will create and maintain all financial documents, including budgets and bank statements.
   4. The Secretary will keep all records of official business and communicate with members about the LEGA-C meeting minutes, important announcements, and will assume the duties of the President in his/her absence.
   5. The Public Relations officer will be in charge of marketing the LEGA-C events and will also oversee LEGA-C social media. They will serve as the contact person for community service events.

D. Committees
   1. The executive committee shall be comprised of the elected LEGA-C officers and shall meet to finalize agenda items, prepare informational reports, and collaborate on the business of the organization.
   2. The executive committee may create committees and appoint members as needs arise.

Article V – Meetings
A. Executive Board Meetings
   1. Purpose: To discuss and plan LEGA-C operations.
      a. The President will chair the meeting.
      b. Meeting times will be decided on as a group based on officers’ availability.
      c. Meetings will be held once a month.
      d. Quorum will be 2/3 of executive board.

B. General Member Meetings
2. Purpose: To update members of LEGA-C operations.
   a. The President will chair the meeting and invite other officers to assist as needed.
   b. Meeting times will be decided on based on LEGA-C members’ availability.
   c. Meetings will be held once a month.
   d. The Secretary will be responsible for notifying members of upcoming meetings and will announce any special meetings.

Article VI – Decision Making Process
A. The process for general decision making (including the expenditure of funds) shall be a simple majority of a quorum unless otherwise specified in this constitution. A quorum shall constitute a minimum of 60% of the membership in attendance at a scheduled meeting.

Article VII – Advisor
A. Faculty or staff advisor shall be selected and removed by the executive board.

Article VIII – Amendment Process
A. This constitution may be amended by a 2/3 vote of the total membership. Once an amendment has been proposed, the executive board will first discuss at the next meeting. Members will be introduced to the amendment at the next general meeting and will vote.

Article IX – Disbursal of Assets
A. Should the club disband, the executive board shall disburse the assets to DREAM Action NIU. Should DREAM Action NIU no longer exist and no officers be available, the Director of the Latino Resource Center shall be authorized to make the disbursement where they deem most appropriate to help Latino students at NIU.
