NPHC Constitution
As of 08/30/16,
If any of the following laws listed above are violated by your chapter the Executive Board shall take it to Student Involvement Leadership & Development, S.A. and the Judiciary Board.

Section 4: Expansion

Any group interested in forming a new fraternity or sorority at Northern Illinois University (NIU) must comply with University procedures, guidelines, and policies, the NPHC policies and procedures including the expansion guidelines, the Student Association guidelines; additionally, the codes of the City of De Kalb and the laws of the State of Illinois must be followed.

A. Any group interested in re/colonizing at NIU must submit a written letter from their national office (or alumni in absence of a national structure) to the Chair of the Greek Life Standards Board (GLSB), which should be the Activities Advisor for Fraternity and Sorority Affairs. Upon receipt, the Chair will present the request to the G LSB and begin the approval process (pg. 26, Part II, Sec. G, G-2, of the Greek Life Standards Document).

B. The Activities Advisor for Fraternity and Sorority Affairs, the NPHC Advisor, and the Program Coordinator for Fraternity and Sorority Affairs will assist the G LSB, the NPHC Executive Board and the Director and Associate Director of University Programming and Activities, whenever they request information regarding the formation of new organizations and the current climate of Greek life regarding to re/colonization. The aforementioned parties will make a decision about the need for fraternity/sorority expansion and apply it to the current situation.

1. EXPANSION NOT PERMITTED: should the aforementioned parties decide expansion is not necessary, new chapters will not be permitted to begin colonization at NIU for a period of time to be set by the G LSB. The Board will keep the organizations request on file for future consideration.

2. EXPANSION PERMITTED: should the aforementioned parties decide expansion is desired, decisions for permission to begin re/colonization will be made based on the following steps.
C. An initial screening meeting is arranged between the Activities Advisor for Fraternity and Sorority Affairs, the NPHC Advisor, the GLSB and the fraternity/sorority headquarter representative(s). The following parties will be invited to participate in this meeting: the NPHC President and the Director/Associate Director of University Programming and Activities.

D. An assessment/evaluation from the initial screening meeting will be made by the members of the GLSB immediately following the meeting with the headquarter representative(s).

E. If the GLSB approves a petitioning group, a formal letter will be drafted by the Activities Advisor for Fraternity and Sorority Affairs and sent within five business days of the decision and sent to the headquarter representative(s). This letter will indicate that NIU has granted them Associate Member status in the NPHC, and allowing them 30 calendar days to complete, review, and return the following materials:

- NPHC Constitution
- Northern Illinois University Student Judicial Code
- Become a recognized student organization through the Student Association
- Letter of commitment/acceptance from inter/national headquarter

If the GLSB does not lend approval to a petitioning group, the international office will be notified within five business days of the decision and the group may begin the process in the next cycle of approved expansion.

Section 5: Groups that are found to be functioning after failing to receive recognition by the GLSB or while on suspension, either explicitly or implicitly, will severely damage their chapter’s future at Northern Illinois University.

Article 2: Finance

The Treasurer shall develop a yearly budget for the NPHC. The total amount of the budget will be determined by the total amount of dues collected from chapters. Chapters are required to pay dues by the end of the 3rd general body meeting. Chapters that pay dues after the due date will be assessed a $10 per week late fee each week the dues are late, up to two weeks. If at the end of two weeks, the full amount of the dues and any applicable late fees are not paid, the chapter will immediately lose all privileges; including but not limited to:
• Homecoming tickets
• Room rental
• Membership intake
• Programming/ Founders Week Voting Privileges
• Free entry to NPHC sponsored Events

Section 1: If finances permits after homecoming the executive board will pay all pending obligation including new items for the NPHC yard, the executive board will set a minimum $2250 ($250 per organization) aside for all regular and associate members for conference & large events. Chapters must request money two weeks in advance and final decision will be made based on the executive board discretion. The executive board may put a deadline for use of funds. If any organization regular member or associate cannot use their portion of the money due to failure to be in good standing, the executive board can make a decision how it should be divided equally among other organizations.

Section 2: All members regular and associate must be in good financial and academic standings to request funds from NPHC. All members regular and associate must be financial by the 3rd general body meeting of the semester, failure to do so will disqualify the member organization for assistances.

Article 3: Election of Officers

Section 1: Applications will be available on the web site by the second Tuesday of the semester. A due date will also be on the web site. All candidates running for executive board positions must fill out an application.

Section 2: Only applications turned in by the deadline will be accepted and able to run during election (no one may run from the floor). All applications will be forwarded to each chapter president so that they may share them at the next chapter meeting and decide as a chapter which candidate they want to vote for. If any position is not filled during the regular election another election will be held the following week where people may run from the floor (as long as they meet the academic requirement a semester and cumulative GPA of 2.5)

Section 3: Election Procedures

1. Each candidate will have 3 minutes to give a short speech.
2. All candidates must have a semester and cumulative GPA of 2.5 and have been active in their chapter for at least one academic year (except under special circumstances determined by the executive board).

3. After the speech each candidate will be asked one question per position developed by the current executive council.

After those questions, chapter delegates will have 2 minutes to ask questions of that delegate (it is encouraged that if you ask a question of one candidate that you ask it of everyone running for that position). No council officer may ask any questions at this time. If a council officer wants a question to be asked, s/he may submit that question to the NPHC Advisor prior to the start of elections.

4. Voting:
   a. Ballot voting will be used (ballots will be collected and counted by the Vice President and the Secretary; in case of their absence of both are affiliated in same organization the Treasurer will fill in).

   b. Each chapter, financial, will have one vote.

   c. Each chapter delegate will be asked to put their name on a tally sheet next to their chapter’s name. Delegates will sign the tally sheet to indicate that they have received a ballot. The chapter does not have to choose a candidate for a particular position if they feel there are no qualified candidates.

   d. A candidate will need a majority of the chapters voting to get elected.

   e. In the event of a tie, the council will re-discuss the candidates for an additional 2 minutes, another ballot vote will be taken, if there is still a tie, the council Vice President will cast the tie-breaking vote after consultation with the full executive board.

   f. In the event that more than two candidates run for the same position and no majority is achieved the person with the least amount of votes will be dropped and the top two will have a run-off (any ties will go through the same procedure as stated above)

   g. Any unfilled positions will be re-opened for candidates to run from the floor the following week (candidates from the floor will still need to meet all the requirements to be an officer)
5. After the voting has concluded the candidates will be brought back in and the winner will be announced.

6. Any candidate who is not elected may be considered for another position that has not yet been filled.

Article 4: Delegate Meetings

Section 1: The Secretary and Judicial Chair will work together to keep up to date files on attendance, minutes, agendas, fines, dues, or other fees, on a regular basis.

Section 2: Each member organization is required to send two (2) delegates to every weekly or bi-weekly delegate meeting. Each member organization should also have an alternate delegate available if one of the official delegates cannot make a meeting. The fine for not having any delegates present at the bi-weekly meeting is $10 per delegate. Also, if either delegate is late there will be a $5 chapter fine per member. Executive members do count as attendance for their respective organization and they are not allowed to vote for the delegates.

Section 3: A delegate is excused at the President’s discretion only if prior notification is given by noon the day of the meeting.

Section 4: Conduct and order of the meetings will be left to the discretion of the Parliamentarian each meeting. Meeting disruptions, to be determined by the Parliamentarian, will be fined as follows:

- 1st Disruption: Verbal Warning
- 2nd Disruption: $5
- Additional Disruption: $2 per occurrence

Section 5: Meetings of the council shall be bi-weekly and given notification if changes.

Section 6: Two-thirds of the voting member chapters must be present to conduct business.

Section 7: Special or emergency meetings, called by the President will be announced at least one week prior to the date, unless he/she determines that immediate action is necessary.

Article 10: National Pan-Hellenic Council Yard

NPHC Constitution
As of 08/30/16,
Section 1: The common items that we choose for the “NPHC Yard” include a small area of the land for all NPHC organizations, totaling nine plots. Each plot will consist of a bench surrounded by grass. The benches chosen standard benches found throughout Northern’s campus. Every plot will be designed the same, consisting of identical benches, in order to show the unity amongst our council. The unity shared between the NPHC on the Northern Illinois University’s campus is extremely important, making this project a symbol of that success. Although every plot is designed the same, individual organizations will be able to decorate their bench and area to show their individuality. For example, benches can be painted with the organizations’ colors and Greek letters. In addition, bricks will be organized around the benches to match that particular organization’s colors. In front of every bench, they will display their own elevated shield. Finally, the NPHC Yard design will be concluded with a monumental wall. This wall will display the history of every organization in the NPHC.

Section 2: Since the “NPHC Yard” would signify a high level of importance to the NPHC, each chapter of the council and/or the council as a whole would have to maintain their individual chapters’ plot. This would include removing litter and seasonal appropriate upkeep, such as raking and shoveling.

- Each organization should maintain the up-keep of their plot monthly.
  - August 22nd to December 1st for Fall Semester
  - March 1st to May 20th for Spring Semester
  - June 1st to July 30th for Summer
  - The NHCP Historian will be checking the Yard on the 1st of each month. The Historian will be responsible for appointing delegate(s) from the council during the summer months to monitor and maintain the Yard.

- NPHC will sponsor a bimonthly “NPHC Yard” clean-up program with organizations.
  - The 2nd Vice President will act as the campus clean-up Committee Chair.

- This will include making a campus clean-up schedule, area assignments, and keeping track of the organizations in attendance.
- The campus clean-up will consist of the area around Eco-Park and Stevenson.
- If active organizations fail to attend the campus clean-up program, they will be fined $50.00 under the rules for
Section 3: Rules while in the “NPHC Yard”

- No sitting, standing, or touching another organization’s plot without a member of that organization present.
  - This rule will be set into place to ensure that each organization is being respectful to the other organization’s history.
- The center stage is open at all times unless a NPHC organization is having a show or performance.
  - In order for any organization to book a show, that organization has to be a member of the National Pan-Hellenic Council as well as follow the NPHC Constitution and Bylaws for programming.
- The three common spaces are open to the public at all times unless it’s closed for an NPHC event/show/performance. These areas include: the large open area, the stage, and the entry way.
- No loitering
- No rollerblading, skateboarding, or bicycling
- No animals
- The Parliamentarian will be in charge of assisting organizations with adherence to the rules and will also be in charge of fining organizations who do not abide by those rules.

Article 11: Academics

Section 1: If finances permit, NPHC will give $100 dollars to the Fraternity and the Sorority with the highest Grade Point Average. Also, they will receive an award at the end of the year ceremony both fall and spring winners.

Section 2: All members regular and associate must maintain a 2.5 semester GPA to be in good standing. Failure to do so will result in the following action:

First Semester

Any member regular or associate will be still active with NPHC, but will not obtain free entry in to social events (i.e. homecoming, parties, etc.) Also, any member regular or associate will have to submit a chapter success plan to the executive board by the third week of the following semester.

Any member regular or associate will be fined $20 dollars, which is to be paid by the 3rd general body meeting of the following semester. If these fees are not paid at this time, then every week thereafter there will be a ten dollar late fee. If at the end of two weeks, the full amount of the fine and any applicable late fees are not paid, the chapter will immediately lose all privileges; including but not limited to:

- Homecoming tickets
- Room rental
- Membership intake
- Programming/Founders Week Voting Privileges
- Free entry to NPHC sponsored Events

Second Semester

Any member regular or associate that fails to maintain a 2.5 semester GPA to be in good standing for two consecutive semesters will be inactive for the following semester, which consist of an immediate loss of all privileges including but not limited to:

- Homecoming tickets
- Room rental
- Membership intake
- Programming/Founders Week
- Voting Privileges
- Free entry to NPHC sponsored Events

Any member regular or associate will be fined $25 dollars, which is to be paid by the 3rd general body meeting of the following semester. If these fees are not paid at this time, then every week thereafter there will be a ten dollar late fee. If at the end of two weeks, the full amount of the fine and any applicable late fees are not paid, the chapter will immediately lose all privileges; including but not limited to:

- Homecoming tickets
- Room rental
- Membership intake
- Programming/Founders Week
- Voting Privileges
