Information Meeting!
Media and Culture in Ireland
Program Dates:
June 17-July 13, 2012

Failte! (Welcome!)

ALL ARE WELCOME! LEARN MORE ABOUT THIS PHENOMENAL STUDY ABROAD PROGRAM IN IRELAND!

NIU Graduate or Undergraduate Credit Available in COMMUNICATION, ENGLISH AND HISTORY!

Information Meeting:
Wednesday, February 15, 2012
1:00 p.m.
Watson Hall 233

Study at Trinity College and examine Ireland’s role in international culture via Irish politics, history, literature and media! Lecture/question-answer sessions by eminent Irish scholars, authors and prominent Irish film and television directors. Visits to Dublin historical locations such as the Abbey Theatre, Glendalough monastic site, Kilmainham Gaol, Trinity College’s “Long Room,” and a film festival, just to name a few!

For further information:
NIU Study Abroad Office, Williston Hall 417
Phone: (815) 753-0700
Website: www.niu.edu/studyabroad
E-mail: niuabroad@niu.edu

or
Professor Jeff Chown, 753-5767, jchown@niu.edu
Professor Sean Farrell, 753-6658, sfarrel1@niu.edu
Professor Kathleen Renk, 753-6601, krenk@niu.edu

Northern Illinois University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Institution