

TL 6500 Article Critique 1 Seymour & Osana (2003) Questions

September 24, 2003

Prepared by: Lisa Yamagata-Lynch

Questions	Points
1. In your own words, provide a brief summary of this article.	1 pt
2. What is the research problem, purpose, and research question in this article?	1 pt
3. What were the topics discussed in the “theoretical framework” (literature review) section? How do the topics discussed in the “theoretical framework” section fit into the research problem?	1 pt
4. What methodology was used in this study? Did the authors conduct a qualitative or quantitative study? Justify your position from what you have learned in TL6500 thus far about qualitative and quantitative research.	2 pts
5. How is the introduction (not labeled in article, but the section right before “theoretical framework”) different from the “theoretical framework” section? What function does each of the above section have in terms of the entire article?	2 pts
6. Who do you think the audiences(s) of this article are? Who do you think would benefit from the information presented in this article?	1 pt
7. What are the strengths of this article? Justify your position.	1 pt
8. What are the weaknesses of this article? Justify your position.	1 pt
Total Possible Points	10 pts