Peace, Justice, and the International Courts
An NIU University Honors Study Abroad Program
The Hague and Amsterdam, Netherlands (Holland)
June 2 – 14, 2013

This study abroad program is coordinated by the Northern Illinois University Study Abroad Office (SAO), in cooperation with the University Honors program, College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, and Departments of Political Science. It is conducted in partnership with the De Haagse Hogeschool (The Hague University) and The International Criminal Courts Outreach Offices.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW: From the end of the nineteenth century to the present, genocides have been some of the most notorious events in world history. These atrocities affect all nation states and have repercussions that play out through the decades and centuries that follow and transcend the immediate violations of life.

Since the end of the Holocaust in 1945 one of the most significant facets of a genocide has been the subsequent trials and tribunals conducted with the intent to bring the perpetrators to justice. Today, over sixty years later, we are able to talk about a legacy of tribunals stemming from events in Armenia, Cambodia, Rwanda, the former Yugoslavia, and Guatemala as well as recently initiated events before the International courts stemming from violations in Sudan, Uganda, the Congo, and the appeals from prior trials that have already ended.

In the course of study over the two weeks abroad (and the four meetings held prior to and following the program), we will examine the intertwined issues of genocide and international justice. We will focus on the meaning of justice and its various dimensions (do we seek retribution, restoration, or some transitional middle ground), and how the historical pursuit of justice has been complicated by issues such as sovereignty, denial of genocide, prolonged periods of conflict and violence, and an outright rejection of international jurisdiction. Specific historical and political foundations of various case studies, treaties, and policies will be examined, antecedents explored, and policy-makers engaged. By using an actual historical case study from the conflict in Bosnia (1995) students will learn more about the possibilities and problems of international justice, its failures and successes, and the future potential for the world’s communities and nations in seeking and benefiting from the pursuit of justice.

This is an exceptional opportunity for exceptional students!
There is no other program like this in the United States for undergraduates!
PROGRAM DATES: The program will officially begin on June 2, 2013 in Den Haag, Netherlands (following a June 1 departure from Chicago to Amsterdam) and will end on June 13, 2013 with a departure from Amsterdam. Students will be responsible for making their own air travel arrangements in order to arrive in The Hague on June 2, 2013.

There will be two pre-departure class sessions held in-person (or via Skype or other online streaming) in May 2013. Each of these meetings will last two hours and serve as an introduction to international systems of justice, the International Criminal Court (known more commonly by its initials: the ICC), and a case study that will serve as the focal point of this program. There will also be two post-program classes, again held in-person (or via Skype or other online streaming) in late June 2013 and early July 2013.

PROGRAM DIRECTOR: Dr. J.D. Bowers, an Associate Professor and Associate Vice Provost, will lead the program. Dr. Bowers has received numerous teaching awards, including Phi Beta Delta International Honor Society’s 2012 Yvonne Captain Award for Outstanding Contributions to International Education, NIU’s Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching Award (2010), NIU’s Outstanding International Educator Award (2010) and Indiana University’s Susan O’Kell Outstanding Teaching Award (1997). He is the founder and director of the Genocide and Human Rights Institute at NIU (GHRI) and has led previous study abroad programs to Cyprus and Turkey. He has taught History of Genocide (HIST 387) for eight years and is currently writing two books and several articles on genocide.

Drs. Rajash Rawal and Geoffrey Lord will be the coordinators from The Hague University. Dr. Rawal is THU’s Principal lecturer of Politics and the Programme Manager of European Studies, while Dr. Lord is the Senior Lecturer of European Studies and the Coordinator of Study Abroad and has extensive experience in working with students from the United States.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES: The primary purpose of this program is to provide participants with the opportunity to focus on the implication of mass violence and genocide through an examination of on-going tribunals and matters before the International Criminal Court and the International Court of Justice, both in The Hague. The program will provide real-world and practical training in the field of conflict resolution through intensive workshops, lectures, simulations, and a case-study. The program will consist of in-class “traditional” lectures (built around the case study and all of the related facets of international justice) as well as interactive sessions with court personnel, jurists and scholars. Students will be able to take their existing classroom knowledge, put it into practice, evaluate an actual case before the courts, and interact with international diplomats and administrators.

PROGRAM SITE(S): The program will take place in The Hague, Netherlands. There will be trips to Amsterdam, tours of The Hague (city), and other side-excursions. A short, three-hour seminar on polite conversational Dutch and on the history of the region will be offered to help provide context and an engaging experience while in the country.
HIGHLIGHTS: Our program begins in The Hague, Holland (or Netherlands). The Hague is a very cosmopolitan city, blending old and new, seamlessly, as it has grown over the past decades from the monarchial capital of Holland into an international capital. The Hague (Den Haag, or 's-Gravenhage) is the capital city of the province of South Holland. The population of 1,500,000 inhabitants (including the surrounding suburbs of Leiden and other towns), makes The Hague the third largest city of the Netherlands (after Amsterdam and Rotterdam).

The Hague is the seat of the Dutch government and parliament, the Supreme Court, and the Council of State, but the city is not the capital of the Netherlands which constitutionally is Amsterdam. But it has taken on an increasingly important international role as is evidenced by the fact that most foreign embassies in Holland and over 150 NGOs or global corporations have headquarters there. Most importantly, for this program, it is the home to both the International Court of Justice and the International Criminal Court, which makes The Hague one of the five major cities hosting the United Nations, along with New York, Vienna, Geneva, and Nairobi.

Halfway into the program we will take a short train ride into Amsterdam, one of the world’s cultural capitals. As an ancient and modern city with a history that is intertwined with some of the world’s most famous events, the city will provide us with the context of the Holocaust as we explore the sites that evoke the history of genocide. In this city we will learn about and walk along the path of the history of the Holocaust as experienced by the Jews of Holland. We will first visit the Jewish Museum to learn about the long and deep history of Judaism in the Netherlands and how a city that welcomed Jews for hundreds of years became the center for some of the most effective round ups, detentions, and extermination, second only to Poland. The Jewish Museum provides understanding for the Jewish community in Amsterdam and Holland as well as a sense of their culture and identity. From there we will travel to the Stedelijik Museum which has an excellent exhibit on Dutch resistance to the Nazis. Finally, we will experience (one does not simply visit or tour this site) the Anne Frank House, where she hid from the Nazis for almost three years, only to be taken into custody and subsequently killed in the Holocaust.
PROGRAM AUDIENCE: Space is limited and qualified applicants will be accepted on a first-come-first-serve basis. As a University Honors program first priority will go to Honors students but all others are encouraged to apply. This program is open to NIU students and students from all other fully accredited colleges and universities.

The program is open to both NIU and non-NIU students who are:

- Undergraduates who are enrolled in a University Honors program and/or with a 3.2 GPA or higher (Honors eligible).
- Graduate students in an MA or PhD program
- It is open to students of any major or discipline related to genocide studies, including: psychology, law, sociology, literature, international relations, political science, government, history, gender studies, peace, and conflict resolution.
- Students who do not meet the above criteria are encouraged to contact the program director and ask to be considered on a case-by-case basis.

INSTRUCTION METHOD: (Please see the “Course Syllabus” section below). The program will provide real-world and practical training in the field of conflict resolution through intensive workshops, lectures, simulations, and a case-study. The program will consist of in-class “traditional” lectures (built around the case study and all of the related facets of international justice) as well as interactive sessions with ICC personnel, jurists and scholars. Traditional classroom settings will be utilized as well as on-site instruction at the courts, visits to historical sites, and walking tours. All session, regardless of the format, will be highly interactive, reflective of the case-study, and be built upon an expectation of interactions through questions and answers, participation, and student-led presentations.

THE COURSE: The program director along with faculty from THU and staff members from the ICC or the ICJ will provide the instruction. There may also be a few other “visiting” instructors from Amsterdam University and other NGO agencies as available and appropriate.

There will be built-in, mandatory reflection time each day when students are given time for personal as well as group reflection, discussion, and debriefing. These sessions will provide an essential component of the international experience.

Students will be required to submit written assignments (a daily reflective journal, a case-study response, and two Advocacy Policy Brief Resource assignments), meet on a one-to-one basis with the program director, and work in a group on a case study project.

Those taking the course for graduate credit will have to submit an additional assignment and work together in order to present a graduate-level case study response that meets higher level expectations.
Students will be provided with all grading materials at the time of the first course meeting, including detailed assignment handouts, expectations, grading rubrics, and more.

Please see the attached syllabus for complete course information.

PROGRAM ACADEMIC CREDIT: For satisfactory participation in the program, participants will receive 3 semester hours of undergraduate or graduate credit in one of the following NIU courses.

* Qualified students may elect to receive honors credit with the approval of the program director.

APPLICATION AND ADMISSION PROCEDURES: The program is open to undergraduates and/or graduate level students who meet the NIU general admission requirements, and who are interested in the topic of genocide studies, justice, peace, international conflict resolution, and more (please see “Program Audience” above). Currently enrolled students must meet College of Liberal Arts & Sciences and/or University Honors GPA requirements. Graduate level students must also meet NIU Graduate School admission, course and GPA requirements.

Students must be in good academic and disciplinary standing at the time of application. Students who are on academic or disciplinary probation are not eligible to participate in study abroad programs. Applicants must participate in the entire program and satisfy NIU undergraduate or graduate admission and course requirements.

Students cannot have any encumbrances against their NIU records. Any encumbrances placed on a student’s records by NIU (i.e., the Graduate School, Undergraduate Admissions, Bursar’s Office, Accounts Receivable, Registration and Records, Health Services, Parking Services, etc.) must be cleared before a student is granted admission to a study abroad program.
For undergraduate students to be admitted to the program, an applicant’s official transcript must be on file in the NIU Study Abroad Office. Students who are currently enrolled at NIU, or who have previously enrolled at NIU, do not need to request an official transcript; the Study Abroad Office will make this request on behalf of the applicant. Students who want to participate in the program and earn academic credit from NIU who have not previously enrolled at NIU, or who are not currently enrolled at NIU, should ask the Registrar at their institution to forward an official transcript as soon as possible to the Study Abroad Office. (Student-issued transcripts and photocopies are not acceptable.) Questions relating to the admission requirements or transcripts should be directed to the Study Abroad Office.

Students who desire to obtain graduate credit must either be admitted to a graduate program within the NIU Graduate School, or be admitted to the status of a "student-at-large" (SAL) within NIU's Graduate School. For students to be admitted to the program for graduate credit, the applicant’s official transcript must be on file in the NIU SAO. Students who are currently enrolled at NIU, or who have previously enrolled at NIU, do not need to request an official transcript. However, students who will participate in the program in order to earn academic credit as an SAL (students who have not currently enrolled, nor are previously enrolled at NIU) must provide a transcript from the baccalaureate institution and from any institution at which graduate credit has been earned. This document must be provided to the SAO before a student can be admitted as an SAL to the program. (Student issued transcripts and photocopies are not acceptable.)

APPLICATION FORMS AND DEPOSIT: Click Peace, Justice, and the International Courts or visit the NIU Study Abroad Office website https://niu.studioabroad.com (and search for “The Netherlands” or the “Peace, Justice, and the International Courts” program) to begin the online application process for this program. The webpage provides guidance on requesting information, advising, or applying for the program. Please note that at the time of application, applicants will be expected to submit a signature verification form and copy of their ID to the Study Abroad Office. More detailed instructions can be found at https://niu.studioabroad.com website or by contacting the Study Abroad Office at (815) 753-0700 or niuabroad@niu.edu.

$200 APPLICATION FEE/DEPOSIT: A $200 application fee/deposit is required of all applicants. The $200 is broken down into $100 for the non-refundable application fee and $100 for a program deposit. Both the application fee and the deposit will be applied to the total balance of the program cost. The $100 deposit is refundable only if the participant withdraws prior to the withdrawal deadline indicated on the program materials or for medical reasons verified by a physician if the withdrawal takes place after the deadline.

The $200 application fee/deposit will be charged to NIU students’ NIU Bursar account. (Checks and money orders cannot be accepted from NIU students). Non-NIU students must submit a check or money order in the amount of $200. More detailed instructions can be found on the application website mentioned above.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: March 27, 2013.
ACCOMMODATIONS AND MEALS: Participants will reside in a local hostel just five minutes from campus in shared rooms of four with a shared bath and kitchen facilities. While in residence in The Hague we will shop at the local grocery store and cheese shops and make our own meals (the costs of food, up to a limit of $350 is included in the program fees) and we will also host an end-of-program celebration dinner, including our friends and faculty from THU, at the end.

For the two nights that we will be staying in a hotel in Amsterdam all meals are the student’s responsibility and will not be covered by program fees. (Please refer to the Tentative Daily Schedule for specific details regarding housing and meals.)

AIR TRANSPORTATION: Participants are responsible for making their own flight arrangements between the U.S. and Amsterdam (Schilpol Airport) and for purchasing their tickets from a travel agent or airline of their choice. (Travel insurance is recommended.) Participants should keep in mind that in order to arrive in The Hague in time for the official beginning of the program (June 2), they should plan to depart the U.S. no later than June 1, 2013. You do not have to fly into Amsterdam (although that is the most direct and closest major airport) but you should be aware of the additional time and costs incurred to fly elsewhere and take a train to The Hague.

Prior to the program students will be put in contact with one another so they can discuss flying together, free time trips, etc.

Important - The Study Abroad Office advises all participants that flight reservations for this program should not be booked until:

- After the March 15, 2013 application deadline AND
- The SAO has accepted the minimum number of participants needed to operate this program.

Students will be notified by the program director when it is “safe” to purchase airline reservations. This advisory is given so that participants do not find themselves financially responsible for airline tickets should it be necessary to cancel the program. (See section entitled, CANCELLATION OF THE PROGRAM)

LAND TRANSPORTATION: For program-related travel the group will travel by train. This transportation is provided as part of the NIU program cost and does not require any advance reservations. (Refer to the Tentative Daily Schedule for specific details regarding other program-related transportation). All in-country travel over long distances can be done by train, while all local and daily travel can be done by public transportation or on foot. For a few side excursions we may take a pre-arranged private shuttle van.

PASSPORT: — IMPORTANT — All participants are required to possess a valid passport by March 31, 2013. U.S. passports must be valid SIX months beyond the intended stay overseas.
Individuals who do not currently possess a valid passport should apply for one immediately upon acceptance into the program. After March 31, 2013 applicants may need to request expedited services or apply in person at the Chicago (or nearest) Passport Agency. Information on acquiring a U.S. passport is available at the U.S. State Department’s website: http://travel.state.gov/passport/passport_1738.html. Foreign passport holders may need special visas for travel and are responsible for obtaining all necessary visas.

INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL ISSUES

VISA: A visa is not required for this program as we will enter and depart as tourists.

HEALTH REQUIREMENTS/VACCINATIONS: In order to enter Holland students should be current on their vaccinations. As there are not set requirements for tourists visiting the Netherlands, it is up to each student to determine whether or not they need to update their vaccinations. The NIU University Health Service and most other university or college health services can administer most immunizations.

NIU MAJOR MEDICAL INSURANCE: NIU Student health insurance is required for participation in an NIU study abroad program. Participants not currently enrolled in the NIU Major Medical Insurance Plan will be enrolled by the Study Abroad Office. The NIU Major Medical Insurance Plan has a $250 deductible clause. Students requiring medical attention will be expected to pay any related costs and then file a claim with the NIU Student Insurance Office after returning to the States. Receipts showing payment for all medical expenses are required for reimbursement.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT I.D. CARD: The ISIC card is provided as part of the program cost. The I.D. card can provide discount on international airfare and other travel. Students will receive an application and instructions for obtaining this card when accepted into the program.

The International Student Identity Card also includes a limited health and accident insurance policy which is only valid outside the U.S. Students will have to pay bills at the time of treatment and will be reimbursed later.
PROGRAM COSTS:

The program cost pays for the following cost related services:

1) Accommodations and three (3) meals daily while the group is in The Hague.
2) Hotel accommodations in Amsterdam during the in-program weekend trip to the city. All meals in Amsterdam are the student’s responsibility.
3) All land transportation in Holland (except if a student decides to take a taxi or train for personal travel)
4) Admission fees to cultural and historical sites visited as part of the daily schedule
5) All textbooks and educational program materials
6) International Student I.D. Card
7) NIU tuition for undergraduate or graduate credit
8) NIU major medical insurance

PROGRAM COST: $ 3,365 (not including airfare)

Price subject to change pending currency exchange fluctuations.

All prices quoted are subject to change. The information contained in the program documents and forms is presented in good faith and is believed to be correct as of the date presented. Northern Illinois University reserves the right to amend, modify, revise, or delete any information appearing in these documents, including but not limited to the cost of the program.

Non-NIU students should consult with their home institutions regarding additional costs that may apply to study abroad. Non-NIU students are responsible for any study abroad charges imposed by their home institution.

ADDITIONAL COSTS TO PARTICIPANTS:

- Airfare
- Costs of acquiring a passport (approximately $130, including 2 passport pictures).
- Additional costs associated with obtaining a visa for non-U.S. passport holders.
- Immunization fees (if immunizations are required)
- $40 Undergraduate application fee for non-NIU undergraduate students.
- Independent travel and visa costs associated with independent travel.
- Expenses for free-time pursuits.
- Expenses and purchases of a personal nature.
What is the cost for other incidentals? Students should carefully consider their spending habits when traveling and think about what they may desire to bring back for souvenirs and gifts. There are many shops and unique items throughout Holland that student may wish to buy. A good rule of thumb is 250€ per week ($350 US) for the average student.

They should also determine how much they want to spend in Amsterdam on food. For the six meals (two each of breakfast, lunch, and dinner) in the city students should set aside a comparable amount of money for eating in Chicago for the same period. Breakfast can cost about 10€ for a sit down meal (considerably less if you choose the traditional Dutch breakfast of some cheese, a croissant, and coffee), with lunch around 15€ (again, less if you like pizza) and dinner around 30€. These are very high estimates, but it is best to set aside enough rather than too little.

TRAVEL GRANTS and/or FINANCIAL AID: As a participant in a study abroad program through NIU, applicants may be eligible for: Pell Grant, SEOG, Perkins Loan, PLUS Loan, Subsidized or Unsubsidized Stafford Loan, MAP Award or your privately awarded scholarship with consent of awarding organization.

University Honors students should be aware that there are substantial resources available to support their participation in this program. Both the Provost’s Travel Grant for University Honors Students Application - Summer 2013 and Provost’s Travel Grant for Study Abroad Application - Summer 2013 are available. The Honors Travel Grant is a $2000 award for summer programs while the general award is up to $1000. Both must be applied for no later than April 1, 2013.

Please visit http://www.niu.edu/studyabroad/resources/index.shtml for more information on these and the many other options open to you, or contact Pamela Rosenberg, International Programs Business Manager, Williston Hall 407, (815) 753-9530, prosenberg@niu.edu for more information.

WITHDRAWAL FROM THE PROGRAM: Applicants withdrawing from the program after March 15, 2013 will not be refunded the $200 program deposit. (Withdrawal date dependent upon program dates.)

Applicants withdrawing from the program after this date will also be held accountable for any funds obligated to overseas vendors and agents on the applicant’s behalf. This provision is in effect even if the applicant has not submitted the $200 deposit or additional payments, and if the applicant is applying for financial aid.

If the applicant must withdraw after March 15, 2013 for medical reasons, funds obligated on their behalf to overseas vendors can only be refunded if:

1) The request is submitted to the Study Abroad Office in writing and accompanied by a signed statement stating that travel is not advised from a physician on the physician’s letterhead; and

2) NIU is able to obtain refunds from overseas vendors and agents.
CANCELLATION OF THE PROGRAM: The Study Abroad Office reserves the right to cancel this program if the minimum required enrollment is not attained. If, prior to the commencement of the program, a U.S. State Department Travel Warning is issued for The Netherlands all applicants will be notified promptly of the warning and the possibility of cancellation of the program. If, during the course of the program, a U.S. State Department Travel Warning is issued students will be promptly notified of the warning and the advisability of canceling the program.

NORTHERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY RESERVES THE RIGHT TO ALTER OR CANCEL THIS PROGRAM AS MAY BE DEEMED NECESSARY!
The program will provide real-world and practical training in the field of conflict resolution through intensive workshops, lectures, simulations, and a case-study. The program will consist of in-class “traditional” lectures (built around the case study and all of the related facets of international justice) as well as interactive sessions with ICC personnel, jurists and scholars. Traditional classroom settings will be utilized as well as on-site instruction at the courts, visits to historical sites, and walking tours. All sessions, regardless of the format, will be highly interactive, reflective of the case-study, and be built upon an expectation of interactions through questions and answers, participation, and student-led presentations.

Required Book(s) and Readings:
Geoffrey Robertson, Crimes Against Humanity: The Struggle for Global Justice (The New Press, 2006). This book is required and will be used extensively; it will be provided to you.

Additional articles, web sites, and other required readings will be made available for downloading from Blackboard. These readings will be selected and assigned on the syllabus.

Assignments:
Students will be provided with all grading materials at the time of the first course meeting, including detailed assignment handouts, expectations, grading rubrics, and more.

1. Daily reflective journal
2. Case-study response
3. Advocacy Policy Brief Resource assignment (2)
4. Historiographical essay on International Justice (Graduate Students only)

Those taking the course for graduate credit will have to submit assignments that require greater levels of work, longer submissions, and meet higher level expectations.

All assignments are required to be submitted, via email (and are not confirmed official until you have received an email response saying “Confirmed receipt”) no later than 12 noon (Central Daylight Time) on Wednesday, July 31, 2013.

Please see the separate Course Syllabus handout for all the details on readings, assignments, and daily sessions.
