

Seminar on International Relations (SIR) Series and NIU's Burma Interest Group

Join us to hear Michael Coppedge discuss

What Can We Learn About Burma From Varieties of Democracy Data?

February 7 (Thurs.) from 5:00 - 6:30 pm

Barsema Alumni & Visitors Center
(Stevens Conference Suite - Rm. 190)

Michael Coppedge

Professor,
Department of Political Science, University of Notre Dame

Principal Investigator,
Varieties of Democracy Project
Kellogg Institute,
University of Notre Dame

For more information about SIR and future events, please contact Robert Brathwaite at rbrathwaite@niu.edu or check the Department of Political Science's facebook page at www.facebook.com/NIU.PoliticalScience

Northern Illinois
University

STU INV & LEAD DEV

FEB 07, 2013

7895

VOID AFTER

POSTER LOG#