

Genocide and Human Rights Lecture Series Presents:

Reforming State Abuse in Burma: Governmental Change and Grassroots Projects

Shahin Aftabizadeh, MA candidate in Anthropology, will be analyzing the use of documentation projects focusing on issues of human rights abuse as a means to resist state dominance in the nation of Burma.

Wednesday, February 16th: 12-1pm
Campus Life Building Room 100
Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, IL

Sponsored by the Roger W. Smith Genocide and Human Rights Institute.

For more information please
email: sgalto@niu.edu