

October 29-30, 2010

Northern Illinois University

4th Annual Midwest Regional Graduate Philosophy Conference

Friday, October 29th

Holmes Student Center, University Suite

Keynote Address

"Skepticism and the Deontic Structure of the Space of Reasons" 3:00-5:00 p.m.
Michael Williams, Johns Hopkins University

Reception

5:00-6:00 p.m.

Saturday, October 30th

Holmes Student Center, University Suite

Coffee and Continental Breakfast 9:00-9:30 a.m.

Session 1

"Liberal Neutrality and Educational Neutrality" 9:30-10:30 a.m.
Matt Waldren, University of Wisconsin, Madison
Comments by Dylan Black, Northern Illinois University

"Objects, Worldmaking, and Nihilism in Nietzsche" 10:30-11:30 a.m.
Justin Remhof, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign
Comments by Michael McCourt, Northern Illinois University

Lunch

11:30-1:00 p.m.

Session 2

"A Priority Problem for the Constituent Solution" 1:00-2:00 p.m.
Andrew Bailey, University of Notre Dame
Comments by Jason Winning, Northern Illinois University

"Narrowing the Realm of Legitimate Parental Partiality" 2:00-3:00 p.m.
Brynn Welch, University of Wisconsin, Madison
Comments by Aaron Schroeder, Northern Illinois University

Break

3:00-3:15 p.m.

Session 3

"Epistemic Intension and Chalmers' Conceivability Argument" 3:15-4:15 p.m.
Corey McGrath, University at Buffalo, SUNY
Comments by Justin Dealy, Northern Illinois University

The NIU Philosophy Graduate Student Advisory Committee would like to thank the NIU Graduate School and the NIU College of Liberal Arts and Sciences for funding and support!