The Economic Student Association, led by Dr. Tammy Batson (Center for Economic Education) will highlight economic concepts in both our world and the virtual world. Consider the changing players, the growing labor market, and how real dollars are buying virtual capital. Individuals are looting to win big and hoping to gain an absolute advantage.

Let’s investigate how an E-Sports economy is impacting the real economy.