Student Name: ___________________________________________ Date: _____________

Student Instructions: The student must fill out the name a date above and complete the section below outlining the topic they will be researching or studying during the period of the independent study. Also, please list the number of previous independent study courses you have completed prior to this semester.

Proposed Topic

Number of previous semesters of enrollment in ECON 698 ________________.

____________________________________________ ________________
Student’s Signature Date

Instructors Instructions: After the student has filled out the topic, please fill out the section below outlining your exact expectations of the students and how the student’s grade will be determined. You will be asked to evaluate the student’s work and report a grade by the Graduate Director at the end of the semester. Please note that you may assign an incomplete, however, if this is not changed within 120 after the end of the semester, the grade will convert to the letter grade F.

Expectations and Evaluation Rubric

____________________________________________ ________________
Faculty’s Signature Date

Office use only

___________________        _________________________________        ______________
ECON 698 Section        Approval of Graduate Director        Date

Revised: 3/2017