

NORTHERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY

College of Liberal Arts and Sciences

Major: School Psychology

Degree: S.S.P.

Date Revised: 1/22/2020

Student Learning Outcomes and proposed Methods for collecting data (from assessment plan)

Student Learning Outcomes
1	Students will demonstrate knowledge of the basic methodology and content foundations of the field of psychology.
2	Students will demonstrate the foundational knowledge including ethics, law, professional issues, assessment, intervention, and consultation that are essential to the profession of school psychology.
3	Students will demonstrate competency in planning and using appropriate and ecologically-based, empirically-validated assessment approaches for systems and individuals.
4	Students will demonstrate competency in using appropriate and ecologically-based, empirically-validated intervention approaches for systems and individuals.
5	Students will be prepared to function as entry-level school psychologists who can synthesize research design research studies i.e., be consumers and producers of research.

Methods of Assessment
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The Illinois Educational Licensure Exam (School Psychologist) (2)</li><li>• Second year practicum field supervisor rating scale. (3,4)</li><li>• Portfolio of Evidence for internship competencies (3-5)</li><li>• Competency exam (5)</li><li>• Alumni Survey (2-5)</li></ul>