

NORTHERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY

College of Business

Major: Accounting Science

Degree: M.A.S.

Date Revised: September 2019

Student Learning Outcomes and proposed Methods for collecting data (from assessment plan)

Student Learning Outcomes
1	Apply accounting concepts and technology to solve problems Learning Objective 1: Demonstrate appropriate knowledge of technical accounting concepts. Learning Objective 2: Develop critical thinking skills necessary to solve problems. Learning Objective 3: Support conclusions using appropriate research and authoritative pronouncements. Learning Objective 4: Analyze problems with appropriate technology.
2	Demonstrate leadership and professional skills Learning Objective 5: Communicate accounting and business information clearly and persuasively. Learning Objective 6: Develop skills to receive and provide feedback.
3	Assess decision alternatives of ethical choices Learning Objective 7: Evaluate the ethical implications of increasingly complex and uncertain problems.

Methods of Assessment
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Faculty Assessment of Learning Objectives (1-5)• University Alumni Surveys (1-5)• Periodic Faculty Review of MST program and courses (1-5)• Accounting Executive Advisory Board Guidance (1-5)• Exit Surveys (1-5)• AACSB Accreditation Process (1-5)