The Three R’s

- Review
  - Review the idea or concept you want students to learn. You can do so via lecture, showing a video, etc.
  - During the review and in the large group, engage students in broad questions.

- Respond
  - Introduce an activity that requires students to apply their knowledge or that engages them in a deeper discussion or application of a concept.
  - Do this in small groups if possible.

- Reflect
  - Have students do an individual reflection and either do a pair and share or have them share their thoughts with the class if appropriate.

Lend an EAR

- Engage
  - Identify a hands-on activity to engage the students in around a particular concept or collection of concepts.

- Ask Questions
  - Once the hands-on activity is complete, ask thoughtful questions that tie back to the concept.

- Reflect
  - Have students do an individual reflection or an outward reflection of how they may use this information.
