If you were married to your spouse in 2023 and filed Head of Household complete this section.

Head of Household: In addition to other criteria, to qualify for head of household tax filing status, an individual must be unmarried or considered unmarried. To be considered unmarried an individual must have paid more than half the cost to keep up the home and his/her spouse must not have lived in that home for the last 6 months of the 2023 tax year.

Documentation to verify that your spouse did not reside with you during the last 6 months of 2023: provide one document for you and one for your spouse that includes name and address. Addresses must be different. Check the box of the document you will be attaching.

- ☐ Mortgage or Rental Agreement dated between July 1, 2023 and December 31, 2023
- ☐ Utility or Cell Phone Bills dated between July 1, 2023 and December 31, 2023
- ☐ Copies of State IDs issued in last year
- ☐ Copies of Tax Return Transcript or W-2s
- ☐ Other _____
- ☐ Address of spouse is unknown and spouse cannot be reached. Attach explanation.

If your marital status and tax filing status appear to conflict, explain below.

Example: marital status is married, tax filing status is single because student was single in 2023 and married prior to completing the 2025-2026 FAFSA.
