How do I apply for a Grad PLUS Loan?

A Grad PLUS Loan is a loan from the federal government to graduate students. Grad PLUS loans are credit based using the borrower’s financial information to determine if the loan will be approved. Students who are not approved for the Grad PLUS Loan may appeal the credit decision or apply with a co-signer (also called an endorser).

To be eligible to apply for a Grad PLUS Loan an individual must be:

- A degree seeking Graduate, Law, or Doctoral student enrolled at least half-time.
- A student must also have a FAFSA on file for the financial aid year. Ex: for Spring 24 a 2023-2024 FAFSA must be filed.

The following individuals are not eligible to apply for a Grad PLUS Loan:

- An Undergraduate Student
- A Student-at-Large
- A Post-Baccalaureate Student
- A Visiting Student
- A student enrolled less than half-time
- A Parent of the student

To apply for a Grad PLUS loan the Student borrower must go to studentaid.gov and “Log In” using their FSA ID and password.

What happens if the Grad PLUS Loan is denied?

If the Grad PLUS Loan is denied, there are two options available if you still want to get the loan:

- Apply with an endorser—allows the borrower to reapply with a co-signer. An endorser is someone who agrees to repay the Grad PLUS Loan if the borrower becomes delinquent in making payments or defaults on the loan.

  The endorser will need to go to studentaid.gov and know the student’s name and the Endorser Code.

- Appeal the credit decision—allows the borrower to provide documentation to the Department of Education to prove extenuating circumstances that may override the initial credit decision. More information on the appeal process can be found at studentaid.gov

Based on the results of the credit check, we are unable to approve your request for a Direct PLUS Loan.

You may still be eligible to receive a Direct PLUS Loan.

To become eligible, you must:

- Obtain an endorser and complete PLUS Credit Counseling OR
- Document extenuating circumstances to the satisfaction of the U.S. Department of Education and complete PLUS Credit Counseling.

All other eligibility requirements must also be met before your loan can be awarded and your school will tell you what loans, if any, you are eligible to receive.
