“The university will not tolerate sex discrimination in the form of sexual misconduct.”

TITLE IX TIPS

BE AN ACTIVE BYSTANDER
- Trust your instincts
- Intervene safely, avoid using violence
- Tell another person
- Ask the person if they are okay
- Call the police (911) or yell for help

To report an incident of sexual misconduct visit go.niu.edu/FileTitleIX

GET HELP
NIU Title IX Coordinator
Sarah Garner
Health Services Building 230
815-753-5560

NIU Police and Public Safety
395 Wirtz Drive
815-753-1212

NIU Confidential Advisor
Counseling and Consultation Services
Campus Life Building 200
815-753-1206

Safe Passage (confidential)
DeKalb County 24-hour Rape Crisis Center
815-756-5228

BE SAFE
- Know the emergency phone number for campus police (815) 753-1212.
- Stay alert to your surroundings.
- Travel in groups.
- Avoid unlighted areas.
- Always lock your doors.
- Trust your instincts, leave an uncomfortable situation.
- Use a Huskie Patrol escort or ride the Huskie Safe Line at night.
- Get to know your CA, residence life staff and neighbors.
- Do not allow others to access your email account.
- Keep track of how many drinks you are consuming.
- Be responsible for your guests.
- Carry your cell phone to call for help.
- Keep your phone fully charged.
- Don’t leave food or drinks unattended.
- Report all incidents.
LET’S TALK
TITLE IX

TITLE IX / SEXUAL MISCONDUCT
Most often associated with equity in sports, Title IX is a law that also covers sexual misconduct such as:

- Dating Violence
- Sexual Violence (rape, sexual assault)
- Stalking
- Domestic Violence
- Sexual Harassment
- Gender-based Harassment/Discrimination

Questions about Title IX policies and procedures, contact Sarah Garner, NIU Title IX Coordinator at 815-753-6017 or titleixcoordinator@niu.edu.

ETHICS AND COMPLIANCE OFFICE (ECO)
ECO is a campus resource that enforces NIU policies that ensure the campus is free from unfair, unequal and discriminatory treatment. We help students with situations that they may encounter related to sexual misconduct, affirmative action complaints and pregnancy discrimination.

Health Services Bldg 230
815-753-5560
eco@niu.edu

Northern Illinois University