VI. Committee Reports:

Advocacy: Doederlein reported that she, Holly Nicholson and Steve Builta met and discussed the Myth Busters event idea. They envision the program could begin with a discussion of the similarities and differences in the classifications and perhaps Human Resources could generally share some information followed by a panel of civil service and SPS employees--some new to the transition and some who have been through it; closing with a review of available resources followed by Q&A. This idea was shared with Celeste Latham and Matt Streb.

HR has plans for smaller meetings in February. We will get feedback on that and we’ll see what we can do. Celeste explained that HR did a pilot program of small group meetings with all the SPS employees within the COE where differences and myths were discussed followed by Q&A. It was reported that people asked more personal type questions in the smaller groups. There was also a lot of one-on-one discussions. HR is planning to do more of these small group meetings.

Doederlein asked for feedback on this topic, small v larger groups. It was suggested that some folks feel more anonymous and therefore more comfortable in a large group while others could certainly benefit from a small group setting.

Another thought was that small groups could be better because there are so many different types of jobs which would limit the number of questions in a larger group. Smaller groups can be more focused on the Department. If a myth busters approach is taken, it will be taped and streamed.

Doederlein asked members to let her know by email or call her if you think of any other ideas as we continue to work through ideas and see what makes sense.

Awards: The committee will be meeting later next month. They are seeking nominations for Certificates of Excellence.

Communications & Technology: No report.

Constitution & Elections: No report.

Events: No report.

Professional Development: No report.

A couple of mentions were made regarding professional development: (1) we have professional development opportunities through the Employee Assistance Program and (2) it is difficult for SPS employees to take advantage of sabbatical leave because unlike faculty sabbaticals, SPS employees do not have anyone to cover for them during their absence. It was suggested that we could take a non-traditional approach to SPS sabbaticals.

Regional Community Relations: Jack King mentioned that Christopher Einolf, Director of Nonprofit and NGO Studies, is trying to bring people together for volunteer service. King will be attending a meeting there next week.

SPS Dependent Scholarship Fund: Emily Hochstadder reported the balance of the fund is $5936. Applications are due January 31. More information next month.

Vice-President’s Report: Doederlein read the Academic Policies and Procedures Manual Advisory Committee report concerning posthumous degree/certificate award procedures and the Parking Appeals Committee report. The whole report is posted on SPS Council Reps & Alternates [SC] SharePoint in the SPSC Vice President Reports folder:
