OFF-CAMPUS SOCIAL EVENTS POLICY

Norther Illinois University is fully aware and appreciates the significant contribution our student organizations make to university life and the positive effect these organizations have on their members. The Off-campus Social Events Policy has been written to assist our student organizations and members in the responsible use of alcohol and proper event planning. We are committed to working with our student organizations to appropriately plan for the safety and welfare of members and guests at off-campus social events.

Policy Statement and Purpose

1. The Off-Campus Social Events Policy defines the roles and responsibilities of recognized student organizations (noted in this policy as “organizations”), the Division of Student Affairs and the university regarding the procedures for off-campus social events sponsored by recognized student organizations at Northern Illinois University.

2. All organizations are expected to abide by state laws, local codes, and policies of organization’s inter/national headquarters and Northern Illinois University's Student Code of Conduct.

3. All organizations are expected to act in accordance with campus, local, state and federal laws and regulations in addition to appropriate risk management protocols and policies associated with any relative national or international headquarter.

Key Definitions

1. Off-campus social events are any programs or activities that are planned, sponsored, co-sponsored, endorsed or promoted by a recognized student organization. Social events include, but are not limited to, formals, semi-formals, mixers, member/teambuilding functions, and alumni functions. Social events may include any of the following elements:
   - A member takes part in coordinating the event for the benefit of other members of the organization;
   - Announced verbally by postings to the members of the organization and/or other organizations at an organization meeting, council meeting or other organization function and/or to any other segment of the university community. This includes announcements made via email, fliers, handbills, social media, group texts, etc;
   - Invitations regarding the event are sent to members, alumni and/or non-members;
   - Organization funds are used to support the event;
   - Space is reserved for the event;
   - The event includes alcohol;
   - Amplified music by a DJ or live band is used;
   - A reasonable observer would associate the event with the organization.

2. Open parties are considered events with unrestricted access by non-members of the organization, without specific invitation and where alcohol is present. Open parties are prohibited.
3. Spontaneous events are any events that were not planned in advance and develop unexpectedly. Spontaneous events may include any of the following elements:
   - Hosted or sponsored by the organization and/or its members;
   - Coordinated by student members without any other non-affiliated members;
   - Carried out in the name of the organization;
   - A reasonable person would associate with the organization because of direct organization involvement through any of the following: sponsorship, planning, funding, invitation, or other inducements in the name of the organization for guests to attend;
   - Guests are invited based on their membership or affiliation to a student organization;
   - Organizational alumni members carry out an event at a house affiliated with the organization;
   - Occurs on organizational property;

4. A third party venue is defined as a business or establishment where space has been reserved or rented. Organizations are not permitted to co-sponsor events with an alcohol distributor or tavern where alcohol is given away, sold, or otherwise provided to those present. Third Party venues serving alcohol must be a licensed alcohol vendor that carries a minimum of $1,000,000 General and Liquor Liability Insurance and must show proof, if requested.

5. Common areas include any area within the facility that is accessible to all residents and their guests. This includes areas that are used informally everyday such as a living room, hallway, lounge, entryway, chapter meeting space, and public restrooms with multiple stalls.

6. See appendix for additional terms and definitions.

Event Regulations

1. Event Scheduling
   a. Events are not permitted during the week prior to the beginning of the fall and spring semesters, Welcome Days, Reading Day or during Finals Week, beginning the night before the first scheduled final exam.
