PHASE ONE EXEMPTION MGMT 511-Legal aspects of Business

Phase One course work is designed to compensate for deficiencies in undergraduate course work or experiences considered to be prerequisites for Phase Two graduate course work. Deficiencies in the Phase One requirements must be resolved by either satisfactory completion of the course or by passing the appropriate exemption examination.

COURSE DESCRIPTION: A general seminar in legal problems affecting business in the areas of contracts, personnel, taxation, property, and government regulation of business.

EXEMPTION EXAMINATION: The examination consists of 100 multiple choice questions. Two hours of testing are allowed.

The minimum passing score is 70 items correctly answered. Upon successful completion of this examination, the MGMT 511 Phase One deficiency will be met.

NOTE: A student may attempt an exemption examination only once for a given Phase One course. The score for a second attempt of the same Phase One Course will be automatically nullified.

REGISTRATION: To attempt the MGMT 511 examination, a student must register in advance with NIU Testing Services. Office hours are Monday through Friday 8a.m. until Noon and 1 to 4:30p.m. This examination is administered at Testing Services during regularly scheduled office hours. Phone (815)753-1203.

EXAMINATION RESULTS: Results will be mailed to you from the Department of Management. Phone (815)753-1124

STUDY MATERIALS: Any standard text in Legal Environment in Business or the text currently used for the NIU MGMT 511 course.

Sample MGMT 511 Exemption Examination questions are on the reverse side of this sheet.
