XII. ADJOURNMENT
Proposed Amended NIU Bylaws, Article 20

This proposed amendment is intended to:

- Amend the initial term for the ombudsperson to six years, with four-year subsequent terms bringing it into alignment with the term structure of NIU’s other administrative positions.

- Combine the comprehensive performance review process with the evaluation of the need for the ombudsperson position, both to be completed during the penultimate year of the ombudsperson’s term. Annual performance reviews will be conducted by the president.

- Rename and restructure the Ombudsperson Search and Review Committee.

- Require annual written reports from the ombudsperson. Oral reports to the University Council are welcome, but not required.

The ombudsperson is a resource person whose services are available to any member of the university community. Duties of the ombudsperson include the following: Assist members of the university community in accomplishing the expeditious settlement of administrative, academic, and individual complaints or grievances; make reports and recommendations to the president concerning complaints or grievances for which no remedy has been found; report annually, in writing, to the University Council regarding the operation of the Office of the Ombudsperson, and provide an oral summary at a University Council meeting in the beginning of the penultimate year of the term.

20.2 Access to Documents
Whenever necessary to the resolution of specific complaints or grievances, the ombudsperson shall have access to all members of the university community and all university records and reports with the exception of medical, psychiatric, and psychological records which will be released only upon presentation of a notarized waiver signed by the individual whose records are requested.

The president shall appoint a person to fill the position of ombudsperson from among a list of acceptable candidates submitted to the president by the Ombudsperson Search and Review Committee (OSRC).

20.3.2 Term of Office
The ombudsperson shall serve an initial term of six years, beginning on that incumbent’s first day of service in office. The ombudsperson shall be eligible for reappointment to successive four-year terms if recommended by the OSRC.

20.4 Selection of an Ombudsperson
The selection of an ombudsperson shall be conducted by an Ombudsperson Search and Review Committee (OSRC), which is established by the University Council. A selection will occur when the current ombudsperson does not wish to be considered for another term, when the OSRC fails to pass a recommendation for another term, or when the president decides not to reappoint the current ombudsperson for another term, or when other circumstances result in the position being vacant.

20.4.1 The OSRC will consist of the following:

(A) One undergraduate student appointed by the Student Association;
(B) One graduate student appointed by the Student Association;
(C) Two faculty members appointed by the Faculty Senate;

When the ombudsperson wishes to be considered for an additional term:

(A) The committee shall conduct a review of the ombudsperson’s performance in office, using the operative job description for the office as a guide. The committee shall provide appropriate opportunities for input from members of the university community. Upon conclusion of its review, the committee shall make its recommendation regarding reappointment to the University Council, and such recommendation shall be subject to University Council approval. The University Council-approved recommendation shall then be communicated to the president prior to the end of the penultimate year of the ombudsperson’s term.

Proposed Amendment to
NIU Constitution Article 6.5: Administrative Committees

Rationale:

A challenge from a community member has revealed that the University’s Constitution and Bylaws contain outdated and unclear language that needs to be addressed. This community member believes that the Senior Leadership Roundtable should be subject to the Illinois Open Meetings Act and is using the fact that the Constitution and Bylaws list the “President’s Staff” as an administrative committee as a basis for their argument. In addition, it appears that this community member believes that any entity (i.e., committees, sub-committee, etc.) listed in the NIU Constitution and Bylaws should be considered a “public body” under the Open Meetings Act.

The “President’s Staff” is not currently a functioning committee of the University, as there is no such committee that makes policy recommendations to the University Council, or that serves as a liaison body between the administrative divisions and their constituent parts, as described in the Constitution and Bylaws. In addition, it appears that no other Illinois public university has a reference to the equivalent of the “President’s Staff” in their constitutions or other governing documents. Therefore, the language in the Constitution and Bylaws is out-of-date and non-operational. These proposed changes are intended to remove this outdated language and provide more clarity.

President Freeman holds informal staff meetings with members of the senior leadership – these meetings are known as the Senior Leadership Roundtable. These meetings are usually held on a weekly basis, depending on the schedule of the president and other considerations. The members of the Senior Leadership Roundtable are determined at the direction of the president. Additionally, the Senior Leadership Roundtable is not formally appointed by, report to, or otherwise accountable to the University Council, or any other public body of the state. The Senior Leadership Roundtable’s sole function is to advise the president on matters pertaining to internal university affairs. As such, the Senior Leadership Roundtable is not the same as the “President’s Staff.”

Therefore, removal of the “President’s Staff” from the Constitution and Bylaws is appropriate in order to (1) eliminate references to a committee that does not currently function at NIU, to (2) remove the confusion between the Senior Leadership Roundtable and the “President’s Staff,” and (3) would be more compatible with governing documents from similarly situated universities in the state of Illinois.
6.5 Administrative Committees

6.5.1 The President's Staff
The president’s staff shall consist of the president and such other members as determined by the president.

6.5.2 Other Administrative Committees
There shall be such other administrative committees as may be established by the bylaws, by the University Council, or by the president.
