Dear NIU community,

Beginning this month, NIU trustees look forward to hearing from you – NIU’s key stakeholders – as we consider the prospect of Acting President Dr. Lisa Freeman becoming our permanent president. Our goal is to create opportunities for NIU’s diverse university community to share feedback with the board that will help inform our decision on who should lead the university into the future.

In June, members of the Presidential Search Preparation Committee provided the board with a draft presidential profile that outlined important characteristics and professional qualifications we should seek when identifying our next permanent president. As we shared in our July 11 message to the university, we deeply appreciate their recommendations and believe that the profile aligns tightly with Dr. Freeman.

As trustees, we’ve had the opportunity to spend a great deal of time working with Dr. Freeman both individually and as a board during her time as acting president and when she served as executive vice president and provost. We’ve consistently seen Dr. Freeman conduct herself with a high level of professionalism as she’s led the development and implementation of results-driven strategies and advocated for the university. What would be most helpful for us as we consider her qualifications, experience, skills, values and vision for NIU’s future is to understand your thoughts and opinions on the following:

- Does the draft presidential profile capture everything NIU needs and wants in a permanent university president?
- The president of NIU is to be the champion and steward of the university’s mission, values, concerns and aspirations. In your experience and/or observations, how has Dr. Freeman done this and do you believe she has the ability to do so in the future?
- Why Dr. Freeman would be the best choice OR why we should pursue an alternative candidate.

Listening Tour

Beginning Thursday, Aug. 2, two different NIU trustees will attend a total of 10 separate listening sessions. This format will allow individual members of the Board to directly hear from members of the faculty, staff, students, alumni, donors and as well as the mayors and city managers for DeKalb and Sycamore.

The schedule is as follows:

Open Forum with Dr. Freeman
Dr. Freeman will participate in an open forum from 2 to 3:30 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 30, in the Altgeld Auditorium, where she will share her vision for the future. Time will be set aside for questions and answers, and the session will be recorded and made available online for those unable to attend.

Survey
Immediately following the forum, a survey will be made available to gather additional feedback. Results of the survey will be compiled and provided to the trustees.

Website
All of this information, along with Dr. Freeman’s vitae, is now available online.

It is our intention that the trustees will consider the collected feedback during their Thursday, Sept. 13, meeting. At that time, it is anticipated that the board will decide whether to take action and approve Dr. Freeman as the next president or to pursue other appropriate avenues, which may include a national search.

Selecting NIU’s next president is an honor and responsibility we take very seriously. We value your feedback and your pride for our university, and we look forward to hearing from you in the coming weeks.

Sincerely,

Wheeler Coleman
Chair, Board of Trustees

Dennis Barsema
Vice Chair, Board of Trustees
