

Computers for Public Use

There are twelve computer terminals in the 1st Floor Reference Area set aside for use by the public. These computers may be used for library research or general internet use. During busy times or when others are waiting, you may be asked to limit your session time to 30 minutes. All other computers in Founders Memorial Library require logging in with NIU credentials.