Old Business

Lt. Przybyla provided information on the Illinois Safety Accountability, Fairness and Equity Act, also known as the Safety Act. The Act is a several hundred page Act that will be executed in phases. The majority of the Act will go into effect January 1, 2023. Changes to the Act are pending in the current legislative session, including a lawsuit filed by various States attorneys against the Act.

This initiated further discussion amongst committee members. Topics included trespassing, individuals who have been banned from campus property, active assaults, warrants, protests, site and release discrepancies, and DUIs.

New Business

No new business.
