

GERMAN LANGUAGE, LITERATURE, AND CULTURE

CERTIFICATE OF GRADUATE STUDY (18)

Plan for _____ Z# _____

This certificate is designed to enhance individuals' knowledge of German language, language teaching, literature, and culture and to be of interest not only to teachers who desire continuing professional education, but also to post-baccalaureate students with general or business/translation interests.

Core courses (12 cr, 4 courses)

1	FLGE 511 – Modern German
2	<input type="checkbox"/> - FLGE 561 – German Culture and Civilization 800-1832 OR <input type="checkbox"/> - FLGE 562 - German Culture and Civilization 1832-1945 OR <input type="checkbox"/> - FLGE 563 – Deutschland Heute
3	FLGE 581 – The Structure of Modern German
4	FLIS 581 – Independent Study in a Foreign Language (3)

Two electives chosen from the following (6)

- | | |
|--|--|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • FLGE 512 - Practical Business German • FLGE 514 - German Business Communication • FLGE 532 - Enlightenment, Through Weimar Classicism • FLGE 533 - German Romanticism | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • FLGE 535 - Modern German Literature: 1900-1945 • FLGE 537 - Contemporary German Literature • FLGE 582 - Approaches to Translation • FLGE 584 - Translation Practice |
|--|--|

1
2

For further information, please contact the Graduate Coordinator:

Professor Stephen Vilaseca, Ph.D.

Watson Hall 315

815 – 753-5463

svilaseca@niu.edu

<http://www.niu.edu/forlangs/advising/index.shtml>